Identity Unknown

Kay Scarpetta #28

Patricia Cornwell

Read by January LaVoy

Adult New Release

Crime & Thriller | February 2025

The 28th instalment in Patricia Cornwell's bestselling series finds Dr Kay Scarpetta investigating the mystery of a body found in an abandoned theme park.

Summoned to an unnerving, abandoned theme park to retrieve a body, Dr Kay Scarpetta is devastated to learn that the victim is a man she once loved. While teaching in Rome during the early days of her career, Scarpetta had a love affair with acclaimed astrophysicist Sal Giordano that led to a lifelong friendship.

The murder scene is bizarre, with a crop circle of petals around the body, and Giordano's skin is strangely red. Scarpetta's niece Lucy believes he was dropped from an unidentified flying craft. Scarpetta knows an autopsy can reveal the dead's secrets, but she is shocked to find her friend seems to have deliberately left her a clue.

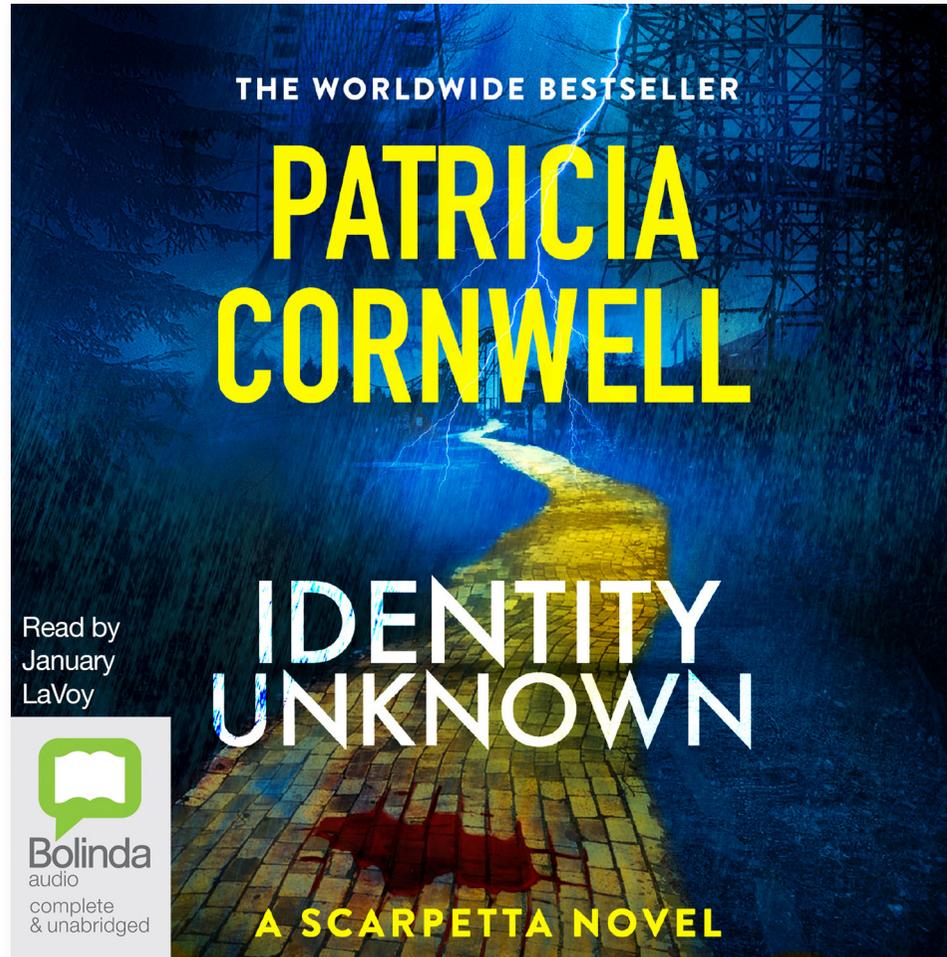

As the investigators are torn between suspicions of otherworldly forces, and of Giordano himself, Scarpetta detects an explanation closer to home that, in her mind, is far more evil ...

The Kay Scarpetta series won Cornwell the Sherlock Award for best detective created by an American author, the Gold Dagger Award, the RBA Thriller Award and the Medal of Chevalier of the Order of Arts and Letters

Cornwell's first novel, Postmortem won the Edgar, Creasey, Anthony and Macavity Awards, as well as the French Prix du Roman d'Aventures

Beyond the Kay Scarpetta series, Cornwell has written the definitive non-fiction account of Jack the Ripper's identity, cookbooks, a children's book, a biography of Ruth Graham, and three other fictional series

'Iconic. Bold. Brilliant. Identity Unknown is hauntingly original, impossibly clever and devilishly daring. Scalpel-sharp storytelling, trademark twists and characters that feel like family, this series is one of the all-time greats.' – Chris Whitaker, bestselling author of We Begin at the End

What Does It Feel Like?

Sophie Kinsella

Read by Sally Phillips

From #1 bestselling author Sophie Kinsella comes an unforgettable story – by turns heartbreaking and life-affirming – of a renowned novelist facing a devastating diagnosis and learning to live and love anew.

Eve is a successful novelist who wakes up one day in a hospital bed with no memory of how she got there. Her husband, never far from her side, explains that she has had an operation to remove the large, malignant tumour growing in her brain.

As Eve learns to walk, talk and write again – and as she wrestles with her diagnosis, and how and when to explain it to her beloved children – she begins to recall what's most important to her: long walks with her husband's hand clasped firmly around her own, family game nights and always buying that dress when she sees it.

Recounted in brief anecdotes, each one is an attempt to answer the type of impossible questions recognisable to anyone navigating the labyrinth of grief. This extraordinary novella is a celebration of life, shot through with warmth and humour – it will both break your heart and put it back together again.

Sophie Kinsella is an internationally bestselling writer. She is the author of numerous #1 bestsellers, including the hugely popular Shopaholic series, now a major film starring Isla Fisher

Kinsella has also written seven bestselling novels as Madeleine Wickham

'I laughed. And I cried. And then I thought about the meaning of life. A jewel of a book.'
– JoJo Moyes, author of Me Before You

'Hearing from the point of view of a novelist who has crafted so many stories but doesn't know how her own will end is raw, humbling and tender.' – Jodi Picoult, #1 New York Times bestselling author of Wish You Were Here

Warrior King

Wilbur Smith
Read by Sean Barrett

Multimillion copy bestselling author Wilbur Smith returns with a brand-new historical epic set in Africa.

South Africa, 1820. When Ann Waite discovers a shipwreck in Algoa Bay she is stunned to find survivors – a scarred sailor and a little boy. As the man walks away into the distance alone, Ann is left to raise the young child, Harry, in place of the baby she tragically lost at sea.

Disaster and hardship befall Ann and Harry, and desperation drives them into the path of the mysterious shipwrecked man once more. Ralph Courtney has recently escaped Robben Island with two fellow prisoners and is destined to seek his fortune at Nativity Bay, the fabled place about which his father told him stories.

But far from being a land of paradise, Ralph, Ann and their fellow settlers find themselves facing unfamiliar challenges. It isn't long before they learn their new home borders the Zulu kingdom, where the warrior king Shaka's empire spans the continent. When Ralph encounters King Shaka, it is only the beginning of a daring new adventure of loyalty and survival.

Wilbur Smith has published over 50 global bestsellers, including the Courtney Series, the Ballantyne Series, the Egyptian Series, the Hector Cross Series and many successful standalone novels

'No one does adventure quite like Smith.' – Daily Mirror

'Best historical novelist – I say Wilbur Smith.' – Stephen King, bestselling author of The Shining

A Cold Wind from Moscow

Tom Wilde #9

Rory Clements

Read by Adam Sims

Adult New Release

Crime & Thriller | February 2025

A gripping spy thriller from Sunday Times bestselling author Rory Clements – as the Cold War begins, Cambridge spy Tom Wilde must navigate a new, and deadly, breed of espionage.

Winter, 1947. Britain's secret services have been penetrated. The country is more vulnerable than ever – and Soviet leader Joseph Stalin knows it. He decides it is time to send his master of 'Special Tasks' to create extra chaos.

But Stalin has a more important motive than mere disruption. He has a man on the inside who must be protected at all costs – a communist super-spy who has the secrets of the atomic bomb at his fingertips.

Freya Bentall, a senior MI5 officer, no longer knows who to trust and is left with one option – to bring in an outsider whose loyalty is beyond question – Cambridge professor Tom Wilde. His task: to find the traitor in MI5.

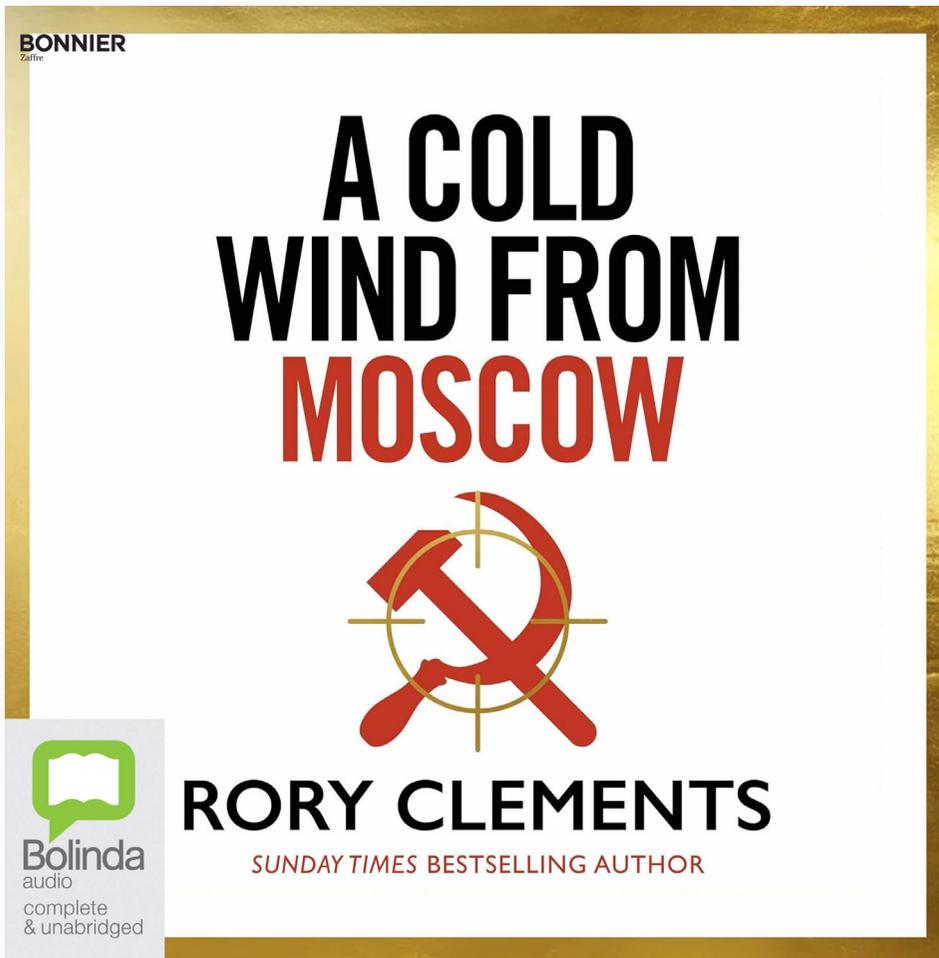

Bentall has three main suspects and Wilde must get close to them all. That means delving deep into the criminal underworld, attaching himself to the cultural elite of the arts and finding a way into the extreme reaches of British politics.

As winter bites and violence erupts, Wilde faces an uphill battle to protect those he loves from merciless killers.

Rory Clements is the bestselling author of the Tom Wilde series of historical spy thrillers, as well as the John Shakespeare series, which is set in Elizabethan England

Clements has won the Crime Writers' Association Historical Fiction Award twice – in 2010 for Revenger and in 2018 for Nucleus

Three of Clements's other novels – Martyr, Prince and The Heretics – have been shortlisted for awards

The Colour of Mystery

Ellie McEwan Mysteries #2

Joy Ellis

Read by Sophie Rundle

Adult New Release

Crime & Thriller | February 2025

Three nice people. Three terrible crimes. What made them do these awful things? Discover a gripping crime thriller full of twists from multi-million-selling author Joy Ellis.

It's the night shift worker who finds them. Huddled in a hospital store cupboard is elderly Edith Higgins. Knifed to death. Sitting behind her is Staff Nurse Lily Frampton, a scalpel clasped in her blood-soaked hand.

No one can understand why this kind-hearted, dedicated nurse would brutally murder a frail patient she's spent months caring for.

That same day, mild-mannered schoolteacher Rod Black is found surrounded by the battered bodies of his pupils. Why would a well-respected teacher beat five schoolboys to death?

Then a third shocking – and equally inexplicable – incident takes place in a London homeless shelter.

What could turn three honest, upright citizens into cold-blooded killers?

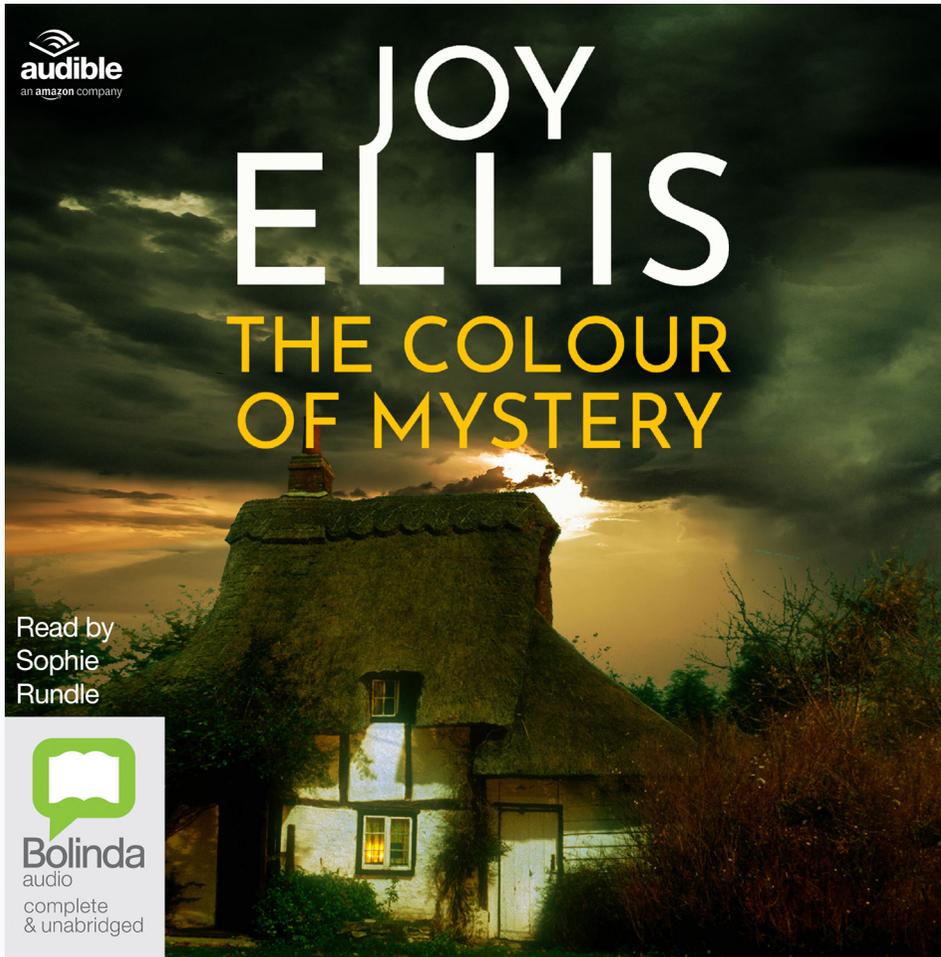

Once again, DCI Bob Foreman calls on Ellie McEwan for help. Can Ellie use her extraordinary psychic gift to uncover the truth?

Joy Ellis is the author of the series Jackman & Evans, DI Nikki Galena and the Detective Matt Ballard Mysteries

Ellis was shortlisted for British Book Awards Crime & Thriller of the Year in 2021 alongside Richard Osman, Lee Child and Ian Rankin

Ellis has achieved the incredible milestone of three million copies sold

'The style of writing has a cosy, homely feel, free from cliches, told mostly from one perspective. Being an unusual topic makes this a fascinating read.' – A.J. Sefton, author of Growing in Damp Places (on An Aura of Mystery)

Witchcraft for Wayward Girls

Grady Hendrix

Read by a Full Cast

A brand new horror from New York Times bestselling author Grady Hendrix, set in a home for unwed mothers in 1970 where four teenage girls are sent away to have their babies in secret.

They call them wayward girls. Loose girls. Girls who grew up too fast. And they're sent to the Wellwood House in St Augustine, Florida, where unwed mothers are hidden by their families to have their babies in secret, give them up for adoption, and most important of all, to forget any of it ever happened.

Fifteen-year-old Fern arrives at the home in the sweltering summer of 1970, pregnant, terrified and alone. There, she meets a dozen other girls in the same predicament. Rose, a hippie who insists she's going to keep her baby and escape to a commune. Zinnia, a budding musician who plans to marry her baby's father. And Holly, barely 14, mute and pregnant by no-one-knows-who.

Fern meets a librarian who gives her an occult book about witchcraft, and power is in the hands of the girls for the first time in their lives. But power can destroy as easily as it creates, and it's never given freely. There's always a price to be paid ... and it's usually paid in blood.

Grady Hendrix is the author of several New York Times bestsellers including How to Sell a Haunted House, The Final Girl Support Group, The Southern Book Club's Guide to Slaying Vampires and many more

Hendrix's books have been translated into more than 20 languages and sold over two million copies

Hendrix also writes non-fiction and his history of the horror paperback boom of the '70s and '80s, Paperbacks from Hell, won the Stoker Award for Outstanding Achievement in Non-Fiction

The Teacher of Auschwitz

Based on an Inspiring True Story

Wendy Holden

Narrator to be Announced

Adult New Release

Historical Fiction | February 2025

Assiduously researched and drawn from archives and survivor testimonies, historian and biographer Wendy Holden tells the inspirational and uplifting true story of Fredy Hirsch.

Fredy built a wall against suffering in their hearts ...

At the dark heart of the Holocaust, there was a wooden hut whose walls were painted with cartoons; a place where children sang, staged plays and wrote poetry. Safely inside, but still in the shadow of the chimneys, they were given better food, kept free of vermin, and were even taught meditation to imagine full stomachs and a day without fear. The man who became their guiding light was a young Jewish prisoner named Fredy Hirsch.

But being a teacher in such a brutal concentration camp was no mean feat. Whether it was begging the SS for better provisions, or hiding his homosexuality from his persecutors, he risked his life every day for one thing – to protect the children from the mortal danger they all faced.

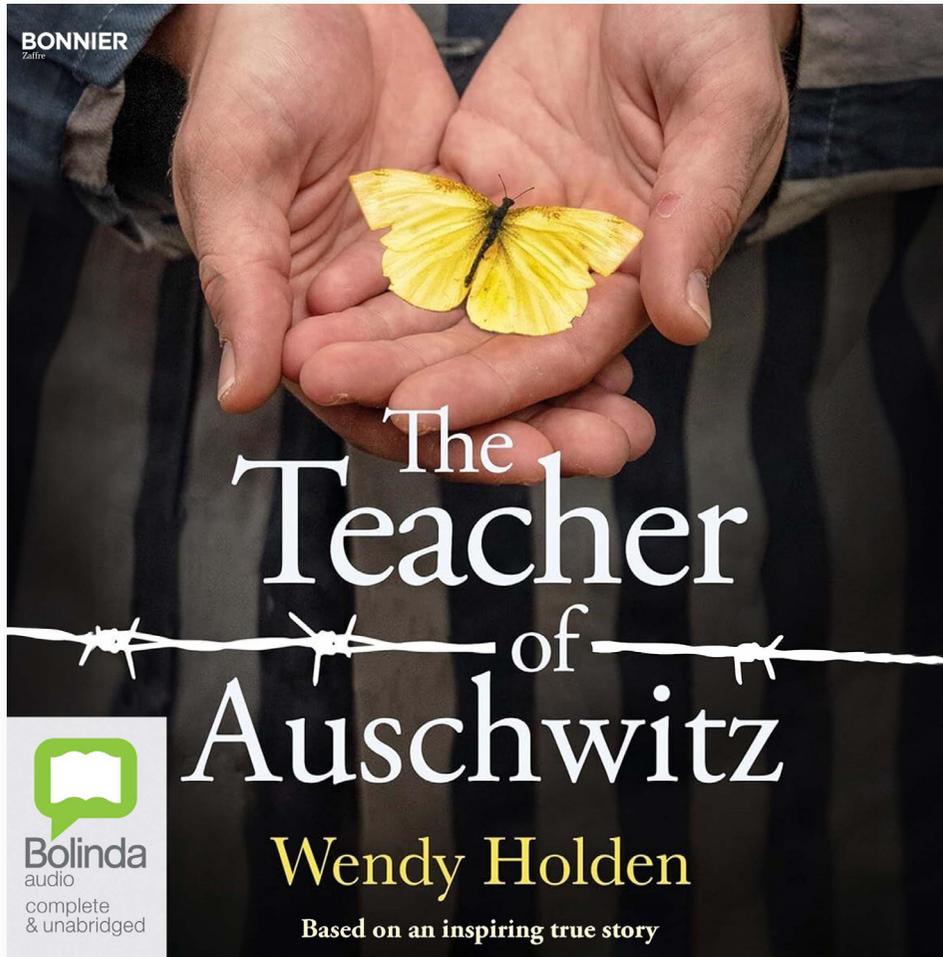

Time is running out for Fredy and the hundreds of children in his care. Can he find a way to teach them the one lesson they really need to know – how to survive?

Wendy Holden is the author and co-author of more than 30 books, among them several internationally acclaimed wartime biographies, including Born Survivors

Holden's books have sold two million copies, have been adapted for television and radio, and some have been adopted into the schools curriculum

Holden was a journalist for 18 years, including a decade at the Daily Telegraph

'Haunting and beautiful. Excruciatingly vivid, The Teacher of Auschwitz is rigorously researched and true to the history, powerfully conveying what a smart, loving and energetic man Fredy was.' – Dr Elizabeth Baer, United States Holocaust Memorial Museum

Talon Duology #2

Jen Williams

Read by Jot Davies

Adult New Release

Fantasy Fiction | February 2025

The stunning sequel to Talonsister, full of romance and treachery, powerful magic and devastating choices.

The othanim have conquered Brittletrain. Their murderous leader, Icaraine, plans to feed Brittletrain's queens to her monstrous son. But total victory over the othanim's ancient enemy, the griffins, still eludes her. If Brittletrain's resistance can secure an alliance with the griffins, they may still stand a chance of defeating the othanim.

Envoy Kaeto has returned to the Imperium, hiding Felldir and Belise in a ruined castle. He believes both his friends and his attempt to murder Gynid Tyleigh have escaped the Empress's notice. Yet secrets are not so easy to keep in the Imperium. Kaeto will do anything to protect Felldir and Belise – and so finds himself en route to Brittletrain as ambassador to the othanim.

Leven, Cillian and Ynis have spent the last two years tracking Ynis's griffin sister, T'rook, a prisoner of Gynid Tyleigh. But Ynis has secondary motives for pursuing Tyleigh. Meanwhile, Leven's health is deteriorating, and Cillian – exiled and disgraced – is tormented by strange voices, who tell him of the return of the mythic Green Man to Brittletrain.

There is no hope for humanity in a world ruled by Icaraine. But the price of defeating her might be almost too heavy to bear.

In 2015, Jen Williams was nominated for Best Newcomer in the British Fantasy Awards

Williams has published two trilogies, The Copper Cat series and The Winnowing Flame series, and has won multiple British Fantasy Awards

'An intricate and compelling new tale from one of the great original voices of fantasy. Full of fascinating ideas, engaging characters and magic.' – Adrian Tchaikovsky, author of Children of Time (on Talonsister)

Alive in the Merciful Country

A.L. Kennedy

Read by Carl Prekopp & Emily Joyce

From a Costa Book of the Year winner, Booker nominee and double Granta-selected Best Young British novelist comes a searing portrayal of trauma, police abuse and the power of hope.

Teaching nine-year-olds on Zoom. A relationship interrupted by enforced distance. A teenaged son who cannot leave the house. Anna McCormick is already struggling to cope with the unwanted twists 2020 has served up. But when an unstamped envelope arrives overnight, her past begins to cast its own long shadow on the present.

With an uncaring government compounding her woes and a hostile threat drawing closer, Anna must dig deep to keep hope alive for herself and those around her.

This is a twisty, heart-racing page-turner and viscerally rendered portrayal of abuse of power by the state, by the police and by the villains much closer to home.

A.L. Kennedy has won a variety of UK and international book awards, including a Lannan Award, the Prize, the Heinrich Heine Preis, the Somerset Maugham Award and the John Llewellyn Rees Prize

Kennedy has written ten novels, one of which was longlisted for the Booker Prize, six short story collections and three books of non-fiction

Kennedy is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, a Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature and a member of the Akademie der Kunst

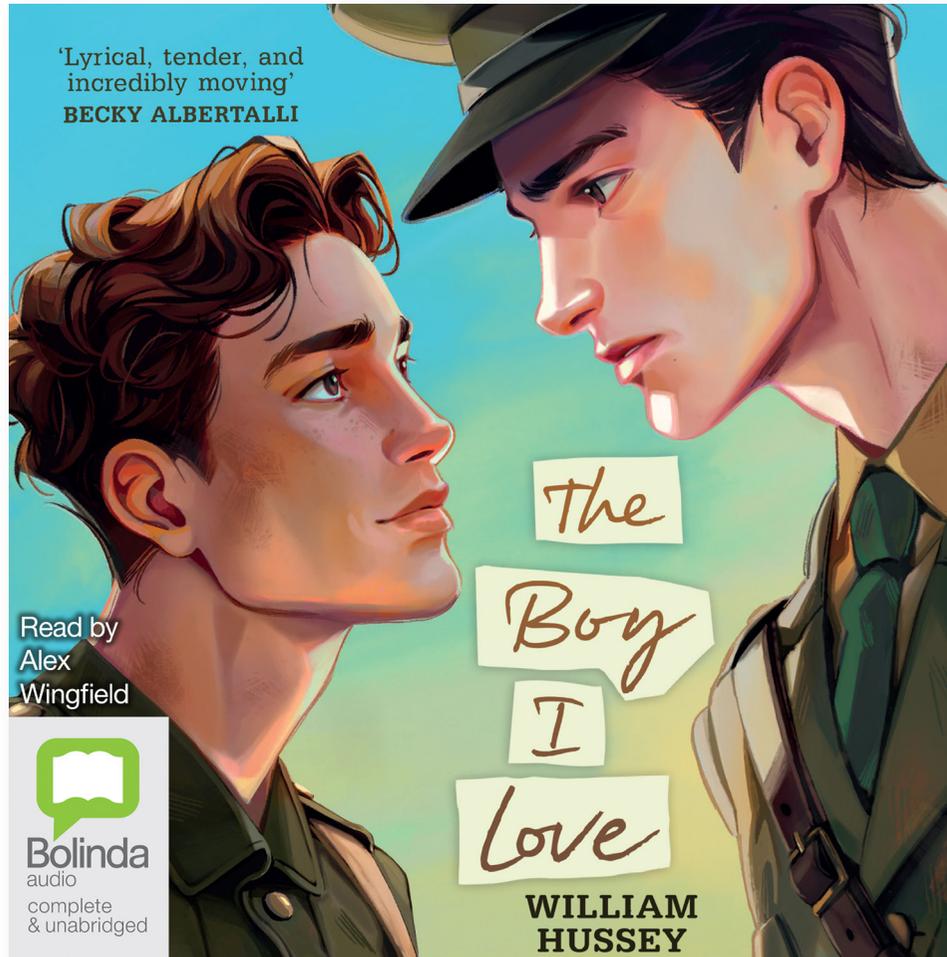

'It seems everything [Kennedy] touches turns to art ... she continues to impress with her psychological fearlessness and breathtaking affection for language.' – New York Times

'A testament to the minor miracle of Kennedy's talent ... a talented stylist, her lyrical flights are often musical and rich.' – New York Magazine

The Boy I Love

William Hussey

Read by Alex Wingfield

A breathtakingly beautiful and painstakingly researched story of love, war and the heartache both can bring.

All I think, all I feel, all I know is pressed into this moment. And what I know is that I can't let him go.

1916. Returning to the Front after injury, nineteen-year-old Stephen wonders what he's fighting for. Then he meets Private Danny McCormick, a smart, talented new recruit. From their first meeting, there's something undeniable between them – something forbidden by both society and the army. Determined to protect Danny, Stephen must face down the ignorance of his superiors as well as the onslaught of German shells and sniper fire. As the summer ticks down to the Battle of the Somme, will Stephen and Danny's love save them – or condemn them?

William Hussey is an award-winning author for children and young adults, who, as a gay man and a visiting author, has spoken to hundreds of LGBTQI+ students worldwide

Hussey is the author of Hideous Beauty and The Outrage and Broken Hearts and Zombie Parts

'It's a tale from the past, with a message for today. A stunningly poignant, devastating, and ultimately beautiful tour-de-force.' – Simon James Green, author of Gay Club!

'Deft, tender and unflinching, The Boy I Love is a terrific achievement that grips like a thriller throughout. A love story, a war story, a story of sacrifice and redemption, it shows how the best of humanity can endure even in the darkest times. Breathtakingly good.'

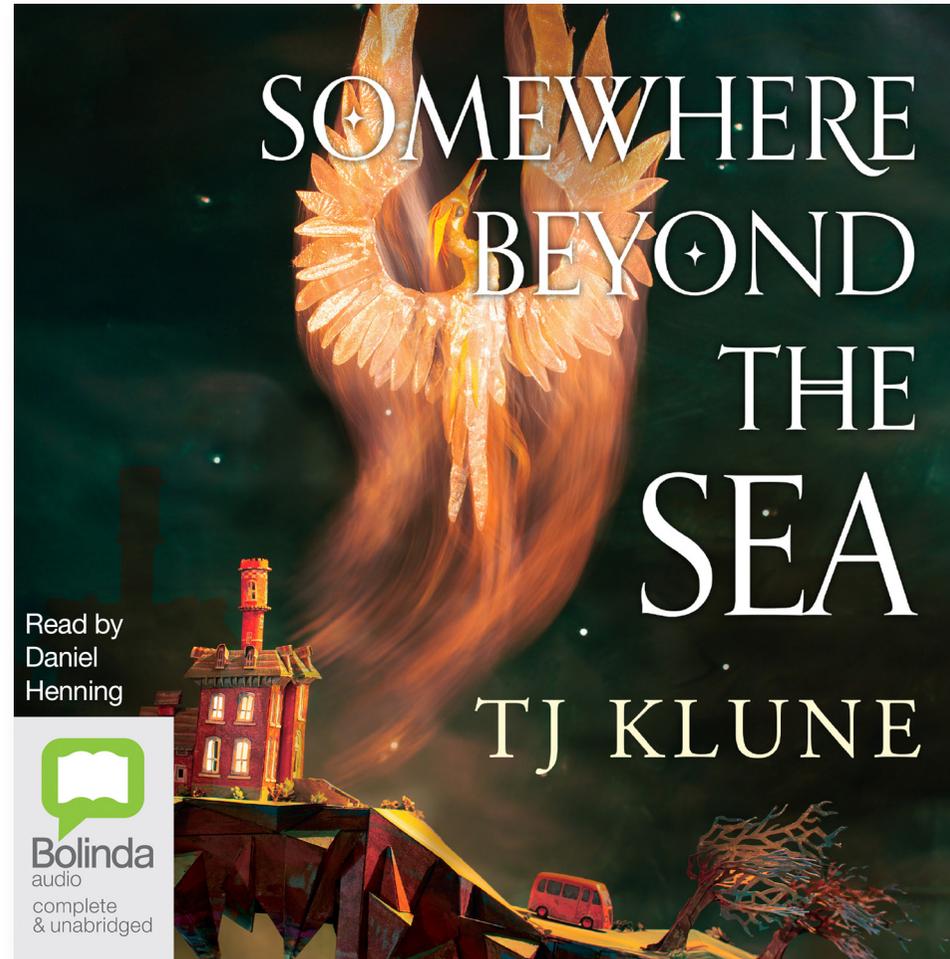

– Jonathan Stroud

Jasmine Mas

Read by a Full Cast

Adult New Release

Fantasy Fiction | February 2025

A new Greek mythology-inspired dark romantasy from TikTok sensation Jasmine Mas.

Step into the Coliseum at the Spartan War Academy where monsters are made, immortality is won, and even a god can die ...

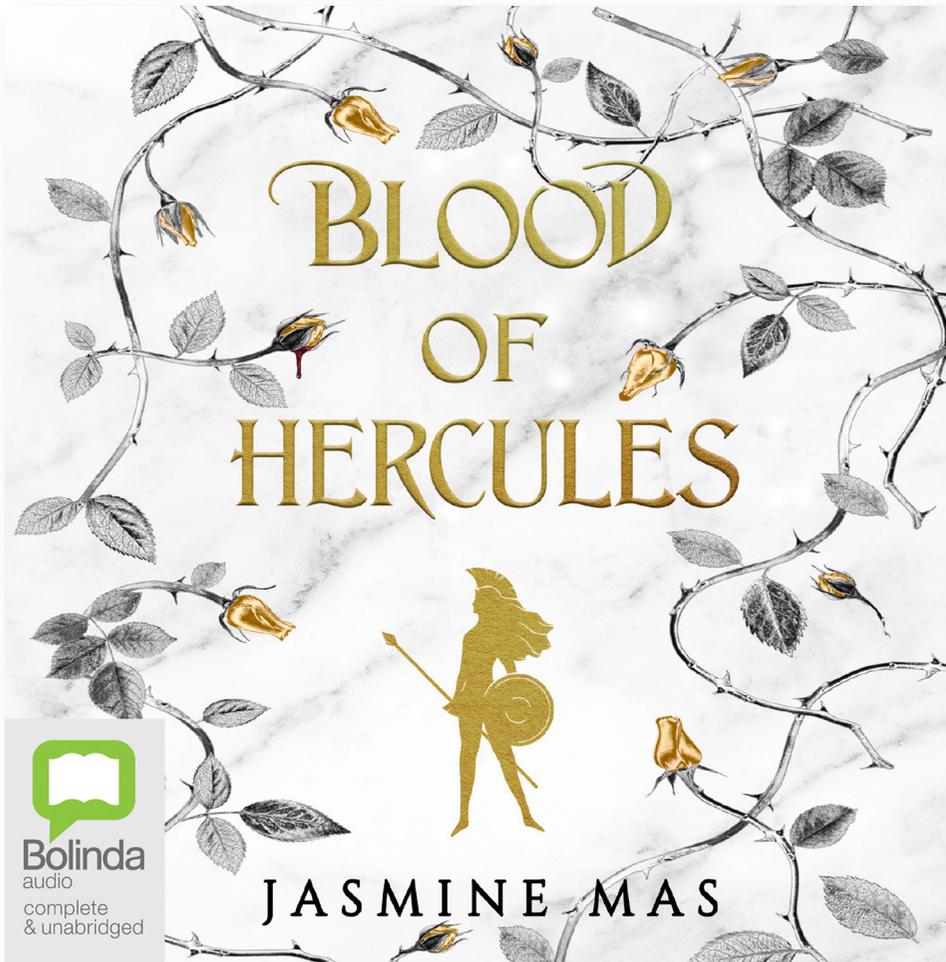

Alexis Hert isn't a hero, and she certainly isn't a god. All she's ever been is a survivor. But the Fates disagree. When a blood test leads to her admittance at the Spartan War Academy, she'll have to do more than merely survive. Alexis will have to claim her birthright: immortality.

But immortality is a privilege, one earned in the crucible of the academy, where the heroes are villains and classrooms battlegrounds. While gladiators Achilles and Patro, her demanding mentors, hone her into a warrior, Augustus and Kharon, her professors and the brooding heirs to the underworld, haunt her steps and her thoughts. Because where there are gods, there are bound to be monsters, and there is more than one hunting Alexis ...

Jasmine Mas is an Amazon Top five bestselling author of fantasy romance. She is a lawyer who spends all her free time writing about strong women in magical worlds

Mas is the author of the Cruel Shifiverse series

'The author balances moments of humor with darker, more intense scenes, creating a roller-coaster of emotions throughout the novel. With its blend of ancient lore and modern sensibilities, Blood of Hercules offers a fresh and exciting take on the fantasy romance genre.' - Medium

Meg Keneally

Read by Lucy Dixon

From horse thief to the merchant queen of Sydney Cove – how did one woman rise so far?

It is a harsh land but people can also rise here ...

Born into poverty in 18th-century England, her future was predetermined. But throughout her life Molly Thistle refused to follow the path laid out before her. Her headstrong nature, disdain for convention and desire for freedom were always destined to determine her fate.

Following her involvement in a fatal childhood prank, Molly dresses as a boy and flees on a stolen horse. Her new-found freedom ends with her arrest and an uncertain journey towards Britain's farthest prison colony.

Undaunted, Molly navigates her way through a society that denies power to her sex and scorns those who have not 'arrived free'. Her quick wit, resilience and ambition will attract the love of her life and the opportunity to forge a commercial empire. And those very same characteristics will create enemies intent on destroying all that she has battled to build for herself and her family.

Meg Keneally is the co-author with Tom Keneally of The Soldier's Curse and three other books in the Monsarrat series

Keneally is the author of Fled and The Wreck, and with Leah Kaminsky, she is co-editor of Animals Make Us Human

It's an invitation Steph can't refuse when she's handpicked to compete at the prestigious National Trust property Coleton Fishacre. With the country's top garden designers as rivals and a stunning historic estate for inspiration, it feels like a dream come true.

But things quickly turn thorny when the youngest competitor falls mysteriously ill and Steph suspects foul play. Her fears are confirmed when a scream echoes through the gardens, leading her to the horrific sight of a dead body at the foot of the cliff.

With her trusty dog Mouse by her side, Steph's determined not to let the culprit slip through the cracks. Uncovering the truth in a garden full of suspects is no easy task, but Steph must trim away the lies before the murderer prunes the competition – for good!

Perfect for fans of Richard Coles, Fiona Leitch and Sarah Yarwood-Lovett

Rosie Sandler's poems and stories for adults have been widely published, including in a Penguin anthology, The Rialto journal and Fictionvale, a sci-fi e-zine

From Here to the Great Unknown

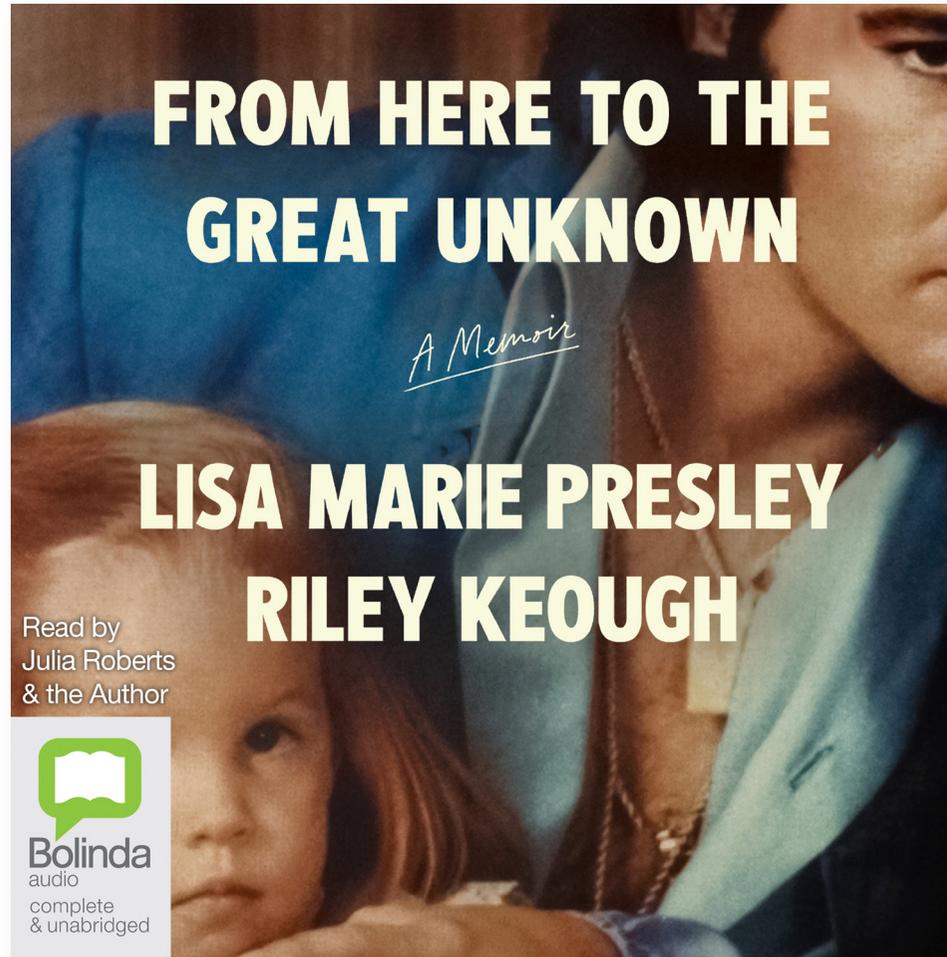

A Memoir

Lisa Marie Presley & Riley Keough

Read by Julia Roberts & Riley Keough

Adult New Release

Autobiography | February 2025

Born to an American myth and raised in the wilds of Graceland, Lisa Marie Presley tells her whole story for the first time in this raw, riveting, one-of-a-kind memoir faithfully completed by her daughter, Riley Keough.

In 2022, Lisa Marie Presley asked her daughter to help finally finish her long-gestating memoir.

A month later, Lisa Marie was dead, and the world would never know her story in her own words, never know the passionate, joyful, caring and complicated woman that Riley loved and grieved.

Riley got the tapes that her mother had recorded for the book, laid in her bed and listened as Lisa Marie told story after story about smashing golf carts together in the yards of Graceland, about the unconditional love she felt from her father, about being upstairs, just the two of them. About getting dragged screaming out of the bathroom as she ran towards his body on the floor. About living in Los Angeles with her mother, getting sent to school after school, always kicked out, always in trouble. About her singular, lifelong relationship with Danny Keough, about being married to Michael Jackson, what they shared in common. About motherhood. About deep addiction. About ever-present grief. Riley knew she had to fulfil her mother's wish to reveal these memories, incandescent and painful, to the world.

To make her mother known.

Lisa Marie Presley was a singer and songwriter who was born in Memphis and raised at Graceland as the only child of Elvis and Priscilla Presley

She released three studio albums throughout her music career – To Whom It May Concern, Now What and Storm & Grace, the first of which was certified gold

Be Bad, Better

How Not Trying So Hard Will Set You Free

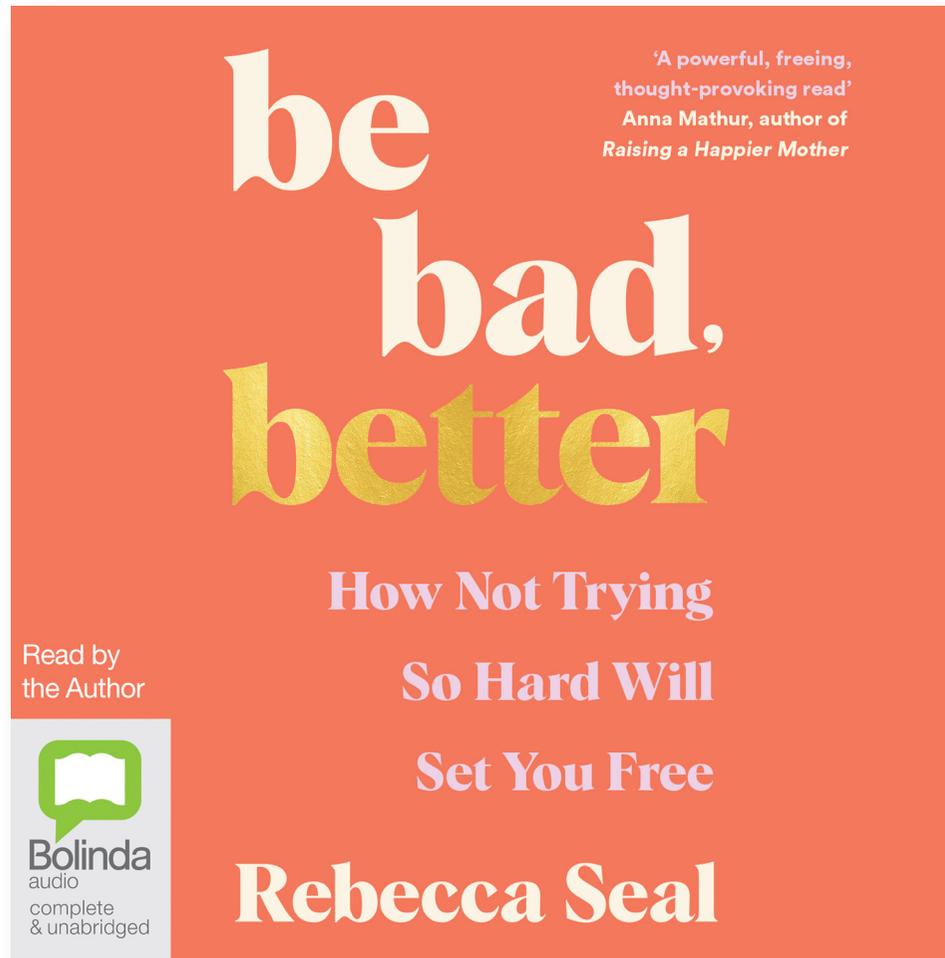

Rebecca Seal

Read by the Author

Adult New Release

Lifestyle - Wellbeing | February 2025

A self-help guide to re-evaluating our ideas of success, embracing being 'good enough' and not feeling bad about it.

At some point, you'll have absorbed the message that being good is to be calm, efficient and tidy. Wise and well-meaning people offer to help you become worthy, to be positive and productive and to always say 'yes, I can!' But what if this is wrong? And what if some of the things we've been told are bad, are just as useful as the good?

Blending science, expert interviews and practical advice, here is the flipside of everything we've been told we should be – and how the bad parts are really not so bad after all. You'll discover:

- Why it's helpful to feel angry
- How it's counterproductive to always be productive
- How laziness can improve your relationships
- Why your body is, and has always been, absolutely fine
- How clutter inspires creativity and enhances your sense of place
- Why mindlessness is good for your mental health

Be Bad, Better is not an invitation to start misbehaving but it is about taking what you think are your worst bits and asking what they could do to serve you.

Rebecca Seal is a features journalist, TV presenter and author based in London

Seal is the host of The Solo Collective podcast and author of Solo: How to Work Alone (and Not Lose Your Mind)

Seal has written cookbooks, appeared as a regular expert on Channel 4's Sunday Brunch, and written for publications across the board

'... powerful, freeing, thought provoking ... This is an invitation to stop labelling our behaviours and emotions as 'good' or 'bad', so that we might find compassion and transformative acceptance of all that lies in between.' – Anna Mathur, author of Raising a Happier Mother

Trauma Proof

Healing, Attachment and the Science of Prevention

Benjamin Perks

Read by Andrew Wincott

Adult New Release

Lifestyle - Wellbeing | February 2025

An expert's inspiring, deeply personal account of how childhood trauma can be overcome.

In recent years the word 'trauma' has become ubiquitous. Yet it remains widely misunderstood. In Trauma Proof international expert Benjamin Perks redefines how we see childhood trauma, and outlines a new path towards healing and prevention.

For 25 years, Perks has worked for the UN and UNICEF on eradicating global barriers to child wellbeing, including poverty, hunger, disease, the mobilisation of child soldiers and population displacement. But he has also been on a personal journey of healing from his own childhood, spent living in the UK's care system and on the streets.

Today, new research is revealing little-known aspects of childhood trauma. It is no surprise that it drives addiction or poor mental health. But how does it explain a heightened risk for heart disease or diabetes? Why does it so comprehensively correlate with poor life outcomes? And how can we not only heal from, but prevent, the types of experiences that negatively impact on child development?

In Trauma Proof, Perks explains the science behind these findings, and argues that making simple changes can break damaging inter-generational cycles.

Benjamin Perks works for the UN in New York, campaigning on human rights and child development

Perks is a leading global advocate on issues related to child poverty, education, mental health, early childhood development and prevention of abuse and neglect

Perks is a Senior Fellow at the Jubilee Centre at the University of Birmingham in the UK

'Weaving together moving personal stories, compelling scientific evidence, and wise insights, Perks captures how childhood trauma is both a lasting wound and a harm we can heal.' – Adam Benforado, professor and author of A Minor Revolution: How Prioritizing Kids Benefits Us All

An emotional and gripping story you won't be able to put down from international bestselling author Catherine Miller.

You'd never guess that Fliss Chapron doesn't have it all.

All Fliss wants is to see two blue lines telling her she is pregnant with her much longed for second baby. But as the negative tests stack up, dreams of completing her perfect family feel more hopeless every day.

After years of disappointment, Fliss's husband Ben is spending more time at the office than in their marital bed, and Fliss finds herself wondering who could be responsible for their inability to conceive another child. Yet, where do you lay the blame when it comes to having a child – and can anyone really be at fault ...

As Ben becomes increasingly distant, Fliss begins to question whether her desire for a baby is just a sticking plaster to save her marriage. Because in the end, how well can you ever know another person ... even the man you're married to?

Catherine Miller is the author of The Day That Changed Everything, The Day He Disappeared, The Day I Lost Her and All That is Left of Us

In 2015 Miller won the Katie Fforde bursary, was a finalist in the London Book Fair Write Stuff Competition and highly commended in Woman magazine's writing competition

A Little Place in Prague

Julie Caplin

Read by Olivia Mace

Cosy up with this swoon-worthy winter romance from bestselling author Julie Caplin.

It's been years since Anna has seen Leo Knight. And of all the apartments in all the cities in all the world, he just happens to walk in to her cosy new attic home – as her new housemate.

As the two walk the cobbled streets of Prague, taking in the sights and sounds from Wenceslas Square, frosted with snow, to the soft glow of candlelit Charles Bridge, the enchantment of the City of a Hundred Spires soon starts to work its magic on them ...

The Romantic Escapes series has been published in 20 territories from Brazil to Sweden and have become bestsellers in the Czech Republic, Germany and Italy

Julie Caplin's title The Little Café in Copenhagen was nominated for a Romantic Novel of the Year award

Caplin also writes bestselling novels as Jules Wake, which include Covent Garden in the Snow, Notting Hill in the Snow, The Saturday Morning Park Run, From Italy with Love and The Spark

'A gloriously satisfying escapist read!' – Kate Frost, bestselling author of A Greek Island Escape (on The French Chateau Dream)

My Summer of Magic Moments

Caroline Roberts

Read by Hannah Genesisus

A gorgeous, heartwarming story to make your heart soar from the author of The Cosy Teashop in the Castle.

When a seaside escape spells a little romance ...

Claire is ready for a bright new chapter. Winding her way to the coast for a cosy cottage retreat, she prays that three weeks of blissful peace and summer sunshine will wash away the pain of the last year.

Claire's a survivor – she's growing proud of the scars that prove it – and she's determined to make the most of each and every day, to seize those little magic moments that give life its sparkle.

Her plan for peaceful solitude goes awry when handsome, brooding Ed turns up in the cottage next door. Will a little summer romance prove the worst distraction? Or might it be the perfect remedy?

Caroline Roberts is the author of The Seaside Cocktail Campervan, The Torn Up Marriage and Summer at Rachel's Pudding Pantry

Roberts enjoys writing about relationships; stories of love, loss and family, that explore how beautiful and sometimes complex love can be

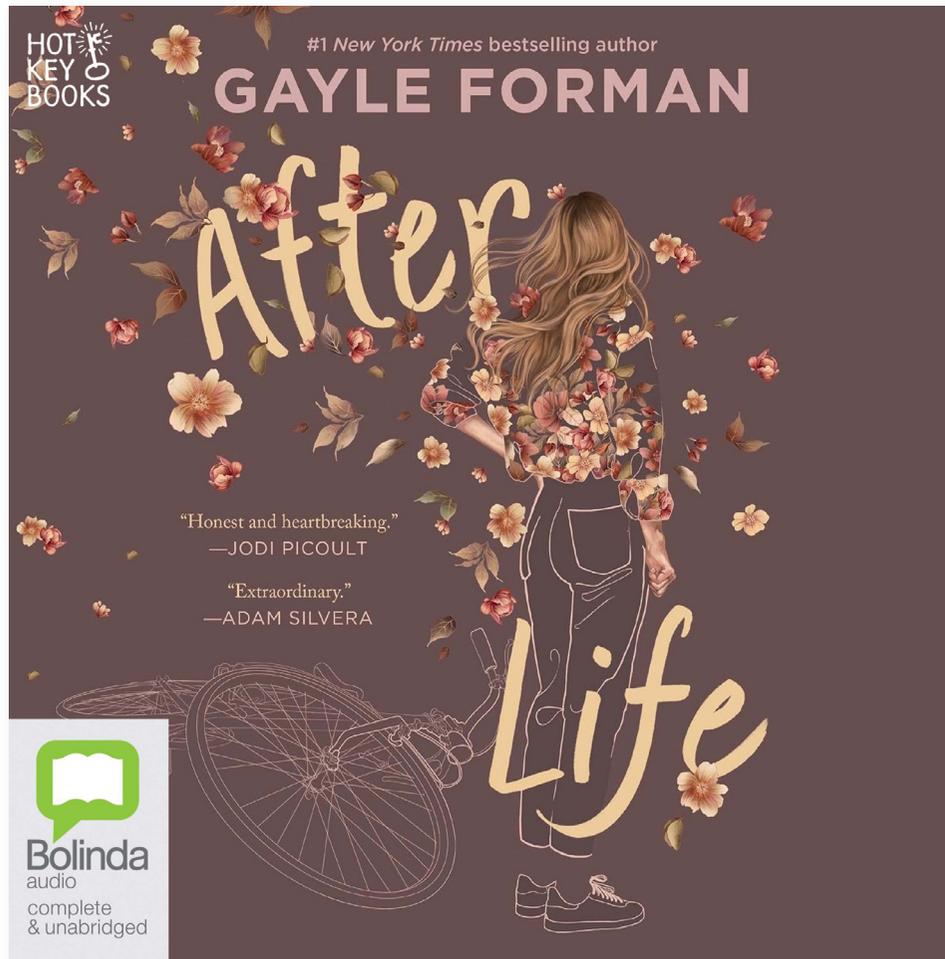

'I loved this book. Pure escapism at its best.' – The Sun

'Such a wonderful book, heart-wrenching and uplifting and joyful!' – Cressida McLaughlin, author of The Staycation

After Life

Gayle Forman

Read by a Full Cast

A major new novel from the author of #1 New York Times bestseller If I Stay, Gayle Forman.

One spring afternoon after school, Amber arrives home on her bike. It's just another perfectly normal day. But when Amber's mom sees her, she screams.

Because Amber died seven years ago, hit by a car while on the very same bicycle she's inexplicably riding now.

This return doesn't only impact Amber. Her sister, Melissa, now seven years older, must be a new kind of sibling to Amber. Amber's estranged parents are battling over her. And the changes ripple farther and farther out: Amber's friends, boyfriend and even people she met only once have been deeply affected by her life and death. In the midst of everyone's turmoil, Amber is struggling with herself. What kind of person was she? How and why was she given this second chance?

This magnificent tour de force by acclaimed author Gayle Forman brilliantly explores the porous veil between life and death, examines the impact that one person can have on the world, and celebrates life in all its beautiful complexity.

Award-winning author and journalist Gayle Forman has written several bestselling novels, including those in the Just One Day series, Where She Went and the #1 New York Times bestseller If I Stay

If I Stay has been translated into more than 40 languages and was adapted into a major motion picture

A former journalist, Forman's work has appeared in The New York Times, People, Elle, Time, Seventeen and more

The Mitford Affair

Marie Benedict

Read by Emma Griffiths

From New York Times bestselling author Marie Benedict comes an explosive story of history's most notorious sisters, one of whom will have to choose: her country or her family?

Between the World Wars, the six Mitford sisters – each more beautiful, brilliant and eccentric than the next – dominate the English political, literary and social scenes. Though they've weathered scandals before, the family falls into disarray when Diana divorces her wealthy husband to marry a fascist leader and Unity follows her sister's lead all the way to Munich, inciting rumours that she's become Hitler's mistress.

As the Nazis rise in power, novelist Nancy Mitford grows suspicious of her sisters' constant visits to Germany and the high-ranking fascist company they keep. When she overhears alarming conversations and uncovers disquieting documents, Nancy must make excruciating choices as Great Britain goes to war with Germany.

Probing the torrid political climate in the lead-up to World War II and the ways that seemingly sensible people can be sucked into radical action, The Mitford Affair follows Nancy's valiant efforts to stop the Nazis from taking over Great Britain, and the complicated choices she must make between the personal and the political.

Marie Benedict is the author of The Other Einstein, Carnegie's Maid, The Only Woman in the Room and Lady Clementine

Benedict is also the author of instant New York Times and USA Today bestselling The Mystery of Mrs. Christie, The Personal Librarian, Her Hidden Genius and The First Ladies

'Captures the mood of a certain element of upper-class England in the years leading up to World War II. Appearances by historical figures like Winston Churchill and Evelyn Waugh round out the story. Fans of World War II historical fiction will be fascinated.' – Library Journal

Two for Three Farthings

Mary Jane Staples

Read by Deryn Edwards

A wonderful saga of Cockney life from the bestselling author, Mary Jane Staples.

Horace was ten, Ethel seven, when Jim Cooper, home from the trenches, minus an arm and just about managing on his own, found them huddled in a doorway on a wet night in Walworth. Slightly against his better judgement he took them in, fed them cocoa and put them to sleep in his bed.

A few days later he found that – somehow – he had become the unofficial guardian of Horace and Ethel. It was him, the orphanage, or separation for the gutsy little pair who would have to be farmed out to anyone who would take them, and Jim felt a sudden affinity for the two cheeky cockney kids. The first thing he had to do was find fresh lodgings for them all.

Miss Rebecca Pilgrim was a woman of strict Victorian principles, eminently respectable and determined to keep her privacy intact. She had reckoned without her new lodgers – Horace, Ethel and, above all, the irrepressible Jim Cooper.

Mary Jane Staples was the author of many bestselling titles including the ever-popular cockney sagas featuring the Adams family

Staples was born, bred and educated in Walworth, where many of her novels are set

'Mary Jane Staples makes you care about her characters, which explains why her books have enjoyed so much popularity.' – Take a Break

'Mary Jane Staples completely capture the feel of the period and the essence of the people ... has warmth, humour and charm.' – Finesse

Bingsu for Two

Sujin Witherspoon

Read by Keong Sim

This infuriatingly adorable enemies-to-lovers coffee shop romance follows two teens who begrudgingly fake a relationship online to save their failing Korean cafe.

Meet River Langston-Lee. In the past 24 hours, he's dumped his girlfriend, walked out of his SATs, and quit his job at his parents' Seattle cafe in spectacularly disastrous fashion – even for him.

Somehow, he manages to talk his way into a job at a failing Korean cafe, Bingsu for Two. This could be his lucky break – but then he meets grumpy goth Sarang Cho, his new, no-BS co-worker, and she is as determined to make River's life hell as she is to save her family's cafe.

After River accidentally uploads a video of his chaotic co-workers to his popular fandom account, the cafe strikes viral fame. The kicker? Their new fans are putting River and Sarang together, big-time. In order to keep the internet's attention – and the cafe's new paying customers – River and Sarang must pretend that the tension between them is definitely of the romantic variety, not the considering the best way to kill you and hide your body variety.

But when Bingsu for Two's newfound success catches the attention of River's ex and his parents' cafe around the corner, he faces a choice: keep letting others control his life or stand up for the place that's become home. And a green-haired girl who's not as heartless as he originally thought ...

Perfect for fans of Jenny Han and Better Than the Movies

Sujin Witherspoon is a Korean-American author and artist. She earned her degree in English from the University of Washington

'With her ability to balance the vulnerability of her characters with laugh-out-loud humor, Witherspoon is a talent to watch.' – Axie Oh, New York Times bestselling author of XOXO and The Girl Who Fell Beneath the Sea

Age of the Five #2

Trudi Canavan

Read by Sarah Douglas

Adult New Release

Fantasy Fiction | February 2025

The war between the Circlians and Pentadrians is over, but the cost has been high on both sides.

Although the architect of the White's victory, Auraya's first taste of war has left her sleep filled with nightmares. She walks in fields of blood while the dead rise in accusation. You killed us. You. It seems Auraya will know no peace while these nightmares haunt her, but the only one she trusts to help has vanished.

The Dreamweaver, Leiard, still struggling to come to terms with the ever more powerful memories of the long-dead Mirar, flees into the mountains with Emerahl, perhaps the last of the Wilds. Although not a Dreamweaver herself, Emerahl is powerfully gifted, and helps Leiard to make sense of his strange jumble of memories. What they discover will change his life forever.

And far to the south, the Pentadrians lick their wounds and set about finding a new leader. Peace, it seems, must wait a while yet ...

In 1999 Trudi Canavan won the Aurealis Award for Best Fantasy Short Story with Whispers of the Mist Children, and in the same year she was granted a writer's residency at Varuna Writers' Centre in Katoomba, New South Wales

The first instalment in the series, Priestess of the White, reached number three in the Sunday Times hardback fiction bestseller list, staying in the top ten for six weeks

Canavan's title The Magician's Apprentice won the Best Fantasy Novel category of the Aurealis Awards

'A wonderfully and meticulously detailed world, and an edge-of-the-seat plot, this book is a must for lovers of good fantasy.' – Jennifer Fallon, author of The Demon Child Trilogy (on the Black Magician Trilogy)

'This series is one of the best I have ever read in my life. I do not know quite how to describe it: it is just amazing, outstanding un-put-down-able.' – The Guardian (on the Black Magician Trilogy)

My Lucky Life in and out of Show Business

Autobiography | February 2025

A Memoir

Dick Van Dyke

Read by the Author

A lively, heartwarming memoir of a performer who still thinks of himself as a 'simple song-and-dance man,' but who is, in every sense of the word, a classic entertainer.

Dick Van Dyke, indisputably one of the greats of the golden age of television, is admired and beloved by audiences the world over for his beaming smile, his physical dexterity, his impeccable comic timing, his ridiculous stunts and his unforgettable screen roles.

His trailblazing television program, The Dick Van Dyke Show (produced by Carl Reiner, who has written the foreword to this memoir), was one of the most popular sitcoms of the 1960s and introduced another major television star, Mary Tyler Moore. But Dick Van Dyke was also an enormously engaging movie star whose films, including Mary Poppins and Chitty Chitty Bang Bang, have been discovered by a new generation of fans and are as beloved today as they were when they first appeared.

A colourful, loving, richly detailed look at the decades of a multilayered life, My Lucky Life In and Out of Show Business, will enthral every generation of listeners, from baby-boomers who recall when Rob Petrie became a household name, to all those still enchanted by Bert's 'Chim Chim Cher-ee'.

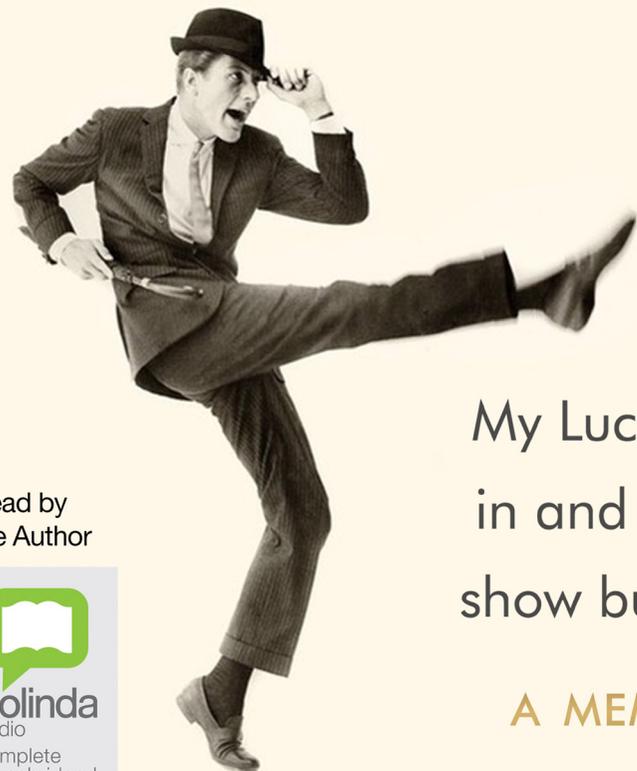

Dick Van Dyke is an internationally recognised and accomplished performer, and has been a recipient of the Theatre World Award, a Tony, a Grammy and Emmy awards

In honour of Van Dyke's on-going contribution to the world of entertainment and charity, he was the recipient of the 2013 SAG Life Achievement Award

'In my opinion, 'Luck' has little to do with Dick Van Dyke's life. It is, rather, his innate kindness and talent that have had an extraordinary effect in shaping the man. And what a fascinating self-portrait he's given us in this book.' – Mary Tyler Moore, American actress

'Van Dyke tells a wonderful story about himself and his times. And – in an often surprisingly relevant manner – our times. We've always liked the performer – it's hard not to like Dick Van Dyke – but this will will make you admire him.' – Playbill

People Like Stars

Patrice Lawrence

Read by Matthew Biddulph & Karise Yansen

An exploration of fractured families, long-buried secrets and the power of friendship, told with warmth and compassion, from multi-award-winning author Patrice Lawrence.

12 year old Ayrton and his mum have recently moved back to the area they lived in when he was a baby – the area they fled after a local woman stole him away from Mum when she was out shopping, thankfully returning him after only a short time had passed.

Mum is suffocatingly over-protective of Ayrton, who just wants to be a normal boy. At his new school, he discovers that his new friend Stanley is linked to him in an astonishing way – Stanley's grandma was the woman who took Ayrton while his mum's back was turned. She became estranged from her own family because of her actions and Stanley has never known her.

Together the boys decide to track down the grandma – now a famous artist with the Banksy-style pseudonym Vixen – but will Ayrton's mother get answers to the questions that torment her, and will Ayrton be able to live a more free life?

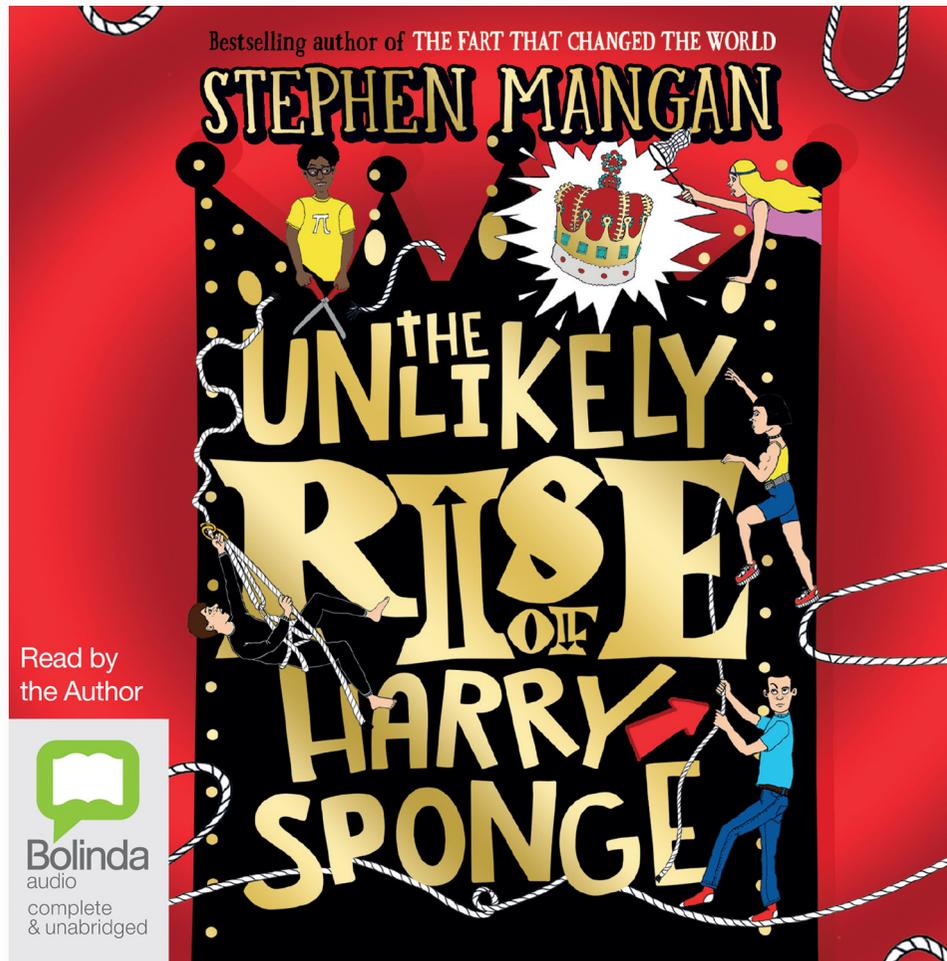

Patrice Lawrence is an award-winning writer, whose debut YA novel, Orangeboy, won the Bookseller YA Prize and the Waterstones Prize for Older Children's Fiction and was shortlisted for the Costa Children's Book Award

Lawrence's subsequent novels have been much acclaimed and frequent visitors to prize lists including the Jhalak Children's and Young Adult Prize 2021 and the YA Book Prize 2021

The Unlikely Rise of Harry Sponge

Stephen Mangan

Read by the Author

The wildly funny, brilliantly silly adventure from the bestselling author of Escape the Rooms and The Fart That Change the World.

Cantankerous old King Chisel is a ruler without an heir. He is persuaded to create a competition called the Crown Duels, inviting the best kids from five regions of his country to vie with one another to become king or queen one day. This gruesome gang of children will compete in a multi-discipline game of knock-out to determine the winner.

Chaos ensues, with pushy parents, wild sabotaging, morally questionable tactics, tantrums and the ultimate shock result – it is unassuming hero Harry Sponge who will be the triumphant tortoise to their hot-air hares.

Stephen Mangan is a bestselling author, actor, presenter and screenwriter with huge range across TV, radio, film and theatre

Mangan has been a judge for the Costa Book of the Year prize and The Laugh-Out-Loud Awards (The Lollies)

Mangan is a presenter on Classic FM and also presents hit new ITV show The Fortune Hotel

Emma

Outback Brides of Wirralong #4

Kelly Hunter

Read by Ana Benham

Adult New Release

Romance | February 2025

Another captivating romance from bestselling author Kelly Hunter.

Home is where you make it.

Lady Emmaline Lewellyn Grayson has never felt at home in her stuffy, aristocratic world. She might look the part of a Lady and play it to perfection, but a wilder world has always beckoned. A world where people say what they mean and keep their promises. A world where, if a man says 'I love you,' the next word isn't 'but ...'

Liam McNair is a rough and tumble cattleman with a station to run and no time to babysit a fragile English rose. But if Lady Em needs a keeper for the short time she'll be in Australia, it might as well be him. He'll show her the Outback, keep her out of trouble, maybe have a little fun and at the end of her stay he'll gladly wave her on her way.

Three months. Two worlds. One proposal. Decision time.

Kelly Hunter is a USA Today bestselling author, a three-time Romance Writers of America RITA finalist and loves writing to the short contemporary romance form

Hunter is the author of the Montana Bachelors and Babies series, the Outback Billionaires series and the Four Kings series

In 2014, Hunter became executive editor for Tule Publishing Group's Holiday imprint

'I was pleasantly surprised by how much I enjoyed this fourth book in the Outback Brides of Wirralong series. Emma is a delightful, satisfying read and I recommend it for anyone looking for some smiles and happy sighs!' – All About Romance

'... an emotionally powerful and beautifully rendered love story ... Readers who thrive on empowered women and dangerous men will relish this carefully crafted, intense romance with a modern, relevant voice.' – Publishers Weekly, starred review (on The One That Got Away)

COVER COMING SOON

Meadow's Law

Quentin McDermott

Bolinda

complete
& unabridged

The true story of one of Australia's most famous murder cases, the woman accused, and the science that set her free – from award-winning journalist Quentin McDermott. Perfect for fans of The Teacher's Pet and Missing William Tyrell.

In 2003, Newcastle mother Kathleen Folbigg was found guilty of smothering her four young children to death, one by one. The 'science' posited that it was more likely that a mother would commit quadruple homicide than four infants die of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS). The law agreed, and Kathy was sentenced to 40 years in jail. This audiobook tells the complete, extraordinary story of Kathleen Folbigg's unlawful conviction and her eventual pardon decades later.

It is also a story of science versus the law. Folbigg was convicted before the era of widespread genetic testing, and legal teams ignored evidence that suggested at least two of the children may have died from a heart defect; it was just too complex for anyone to understand properly. Fifteen years later, a group of more than 150 eminent scientists from around the world believed she was innocent. And after two decades in prison, Kathleen was acquitted and set free.

This is the biography of one of Australia's most famous murder cases, examining the evidence that both unjustly put Folbigg behind bars and then cleared her name 20 years later.

Following six years at Granada Television in the UK, Quentin McDermott joined the ABC as a supervising producer on Lateline before joining Four Corners in 2000 as a senior investigative reporter and producer

At Australian Story McDermott's story on convicted serial killer Kathleen Folbigg triggered a judicial inquiry in 2017 and he has covered her story for The Australian ever since

McDermott is the producer of the critically acclaimed and award-winning documentary Stop at Nothing: The Lance Armstrong Story

Homesickness

Murray Bail

Narrator to be Announced

Thirteen Australian package tourists set off around the world on the holiday of a lifetime in this timeless story by Murray Bail.

It could almost have been their own country: these sections with the gums briefly framed like a traditional oil painting by the slowly passing window. The colours were as brown and parched; that chaff-coloured grass. Ah, this dun-coloured realism. Any minute now the cry of the crow or a cockatoo; but no.

Thirteen men and women travel the world on a package tour but wherever they go nothing is as it seems. Challenged by the unexpected, by differences and subtleties, Bail's tourists are in turn repelled and attracted – and all are altered.

Winner of the National Book Council Award for Australian Literature and the Age Book of the Year Award

Murray Bail is the author of He, The Voyage, Eucalyptus, The Pages, Camouflage, Holden's Performance and The Drover's Wife and Other Stories

Bail has won numerous awards, including the Commonwealth Writers' Prize and the Miles Franklin Literary Award for Eucalyptus

'Bizarre, playful and hilarious.' – Observer

'I found Murray Bail's novel Homesickness a work of brilliant and resonant artistry.'

Keep It Smooth

Life Lessons in Confidence

Cameron Daddo

Read by the Author

Adult New Release

Autobiography | February 2025

A memoir from veteran entertainer Cameron Daddo about confidence – how we nurture it, how we lose it and how we can get it back.

Multi-talented Cameron Daddo has been a part of the Australian entertainment scene since the late '80s. But you might be surprised to learn that, despite appearances, he grew up lacking confidence. He was a stutterer as a kid, then a restless student and uni dropout, before going on to build a life in showbiz.

In this memoir, Daddo shares the valuable lessons he's learnt along the way, some very publicly – the rejections, the victories and everything in between. Through a series of intimate conversations, he also explores public and private crises in the lives of extraordinary Australians, including Keith Urban and Marcia Hines, Michael O'Loughlin and Ryan 'Fitzy' Fitzgerald, Indira Naidoo and Alyssa Healy.

Inspiring and empowering, Keep It Smooth shows us how to rally when we feel we have nothing left to give, and how we can learn to find confidence within.

Cameron Daddo rose to prominence as the youngest prime-time game show host in Aussie TV history for Perfect Match and continues to work in various mediums as an award-winning actor, broadcaster and singer-songwriter

In recent years, Daddo has dedicated much of his work to help shed light on men's mental health through his non-profit organisation My Men's Team

'This is a beautiful book: the perfect combination of vulnerability, humour and life lessons, and the ideal companion for anyone who struggles with self-esteem and confidence. Very thought-provoking.' – Hugh van Cuylenburg, author of The Resilience Project

'A searingly honest account of Cam's relationship with work, life, confidence and most importantly himself, as he generously shares his deepest fears and challenges. Cam's story is deeply personal, and the people he interviews are just as honest. This book is packed with life lessons, guts and reassurance that we all need to back ourselves.' – Melissa Doyle AM, journalist, television presenter, radio presenter and author

Preincarnate

Shaun Micallef

Narrator to be Announced

Read by the Author

Bolinda
audio
complete
& unabridged

Preincarnate is the extraordinary tale of an ordinary man in a race against and across time.

Suppose you were murdered and then woke up 300 years earlier in someone else's body. Wouldn't you want to put yourself in suspended animation and be re-awoken in time to prevent yourself being murdered in the first place?

This is the extraordinary tale of an ordinary man in a race across Time.

Join Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, HG Wells, Queen Victoria, Jack the Ripper and Tom Cruise as they unravel a Masonic plot to restore James II to the throne - and in the process, perhaps destroy the Universe itself. Soul transference, time travel, cloning, space ships, Hollywood and the Loch Ness Monster all come together for the first time in one action-packed audiobook.

Shaun Micallef is a Australian comedian, actor, producer and author

Since '94 Micallef has graced Aussie TV screens in shows such as Full Frontal to Sea Change, to his own gig on Micallef Tonight, Thank God You're Here and Talkin' Bout Your Generation – to name but a few

Micallef received several awards including two Logies, an ARIA for Best Comedy Release and an AFI for Screen Craft

'This is one really funny book ... interesting, clever, funny and distinguished as the Silver Fox himself. I can confidently state that the story and events are so original and unique ...'
– Readings

'Shaun Micallef is an enigma, wrapped in a nerd, inside a truly brilliant comedian.'
– Andrew Denton, Australian television producer and comedian (on Tripping Over Myself)

Finding Eliza

Power and Colonial Storytelling / First Nations Classics

Larissa Behrendt

Read by Ella Ferris

Adult New Release

History | February 2025

Now included in UQP's First Nations Classics series with an introduction by Fiona Foley, Finding Eliza is a vital Indigenous perspective on colonial storytelling.

Aboriginal lawyer, writer and filmmaker Larissa Behrendt has long been fascinated by the story of Eliza Fraser, who was purportedly captured by the Butchulla people after she was shipwrecked on their island off the Queensland coast in 1836. In this deeply personal audiobook, Behrendt uses Eliza's tale as a starting point to interrogate how Aboriginal people – and indigenous people of other countries – have been portrayed in their colonisers' stories.

Exploring works as diverse as Robinson Crusoe and Coonardoo, Behrendt looks at the stereotypes embedded in these accounts, including the assumption of cannibalism and the myth of the noble savage. Ultimately, Finding Eliza shows how these stories not only reflect the values of their storytellers but also reinforce those values – and how, in Australia, this has contributed to a complex racial divide.

Larissa Behrendt is the author of Home, which won the 2002 David Unaipon Award and the regional Commonwealth Writers' Prize for Best First Book; Legacy, which won the 2010 Victorian Premier's Literary Award for Indigenous Writing; and After Story

Behrendt was awarded the 2009 NAIDOC Person of the Year award and 2011 NSW Australian of the Year

In 2018 Behrendt won the Australian Directors' Guild Award for Best Direction in a Documentary Feature and in 2020 the AACTA for Best Direction in Nonfiction Television

Behrendt is the host of Speaking Out on ABC radio and is Distinguished Professor at the Jumbunna Institute at the University of Technology Sydney

'Behrendt's analytical legal skills, her experience and talent as a writer and the visual imagination developed by filmmaking are all deployed to enhance a powerful and learned argument.' – The Weekend Australian
