The Impossible Fortune

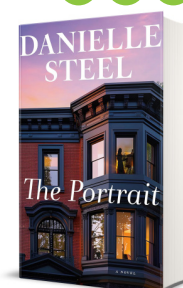

Thursday Murder Club #5
Richard Osman

Who's got time to think about murder when there's a wedding to plan?

It's been a quiet year for the Thursday Murder Club. Joyce is busy with table plans and first dances. Elizabeth is grieving. Ron is dealing with family troubles, and Ibrahim is still providing therapy to his favourite criminal.

But when Elizabeth meets Nick, a wedding guest asking for her help, she finds her old instincts are ready to be put to the test again. And when Nick disappears without a trace, his cagey business partner becomes the gang's next stop. It seems the duo have something valuable – something worth killing for.

Joyce's daughter Joanna jumps into the fray to help the gang as they seek answers. Has someone kidnapped Nick, and what's this uncrackable code they keep hearing about? Plunged back into action once more, can the four friends solve the puzzle and a murder in time?

The Secret of Secrets

Dan Brown

Robert Langdon, esteemed professor of symbology, travels to Prague to attend a groundbreaking lecture by Katherine Solomon – a prominent noetic scientist with whom he has recently begun a relationship. Katherine is on the verge of publishing an explosive book that contains startling discoveries about the nature of human consciousness and threatens to disrupt centuries of established belief. But a brutal murder catapults the trip into chaos, and Katherine suddenly disappears along with her manuscript.

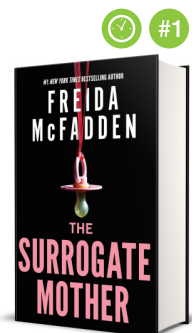

Langdon finds himself targeted by a powerful organisation and hunted by a chilling assailant sprung from Prague's most ancient mythology. As the plot expands into London and New York, Langdon desperately searches for Katherine ... and for answers. In a thrilling race through the dual worlds of futuristic science and mystical lore, he uncovers a shocking truth about a secret project that will forever change the way we think about the human mind.

Smuggler's Cove

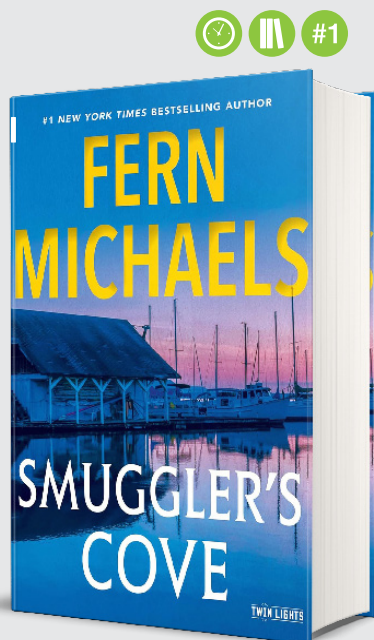

Twin Lights #1
Fern Michaels

Madison Taylor and her younger brother Lincoln grew up in privilege, but their sheltered childhood abruptly ended when their father was arrested for fraud and the family assets seized. Since then, Madison has carved out a new path in fashion, working her way up to editor-in-chief of La Femme magazine, while Lincoln teaches wealth management at a small college outside the city. Both have separated themselves from their family and their past – until an unexpected bequest arrives from their late uncle.

Madison and Lincoln find themselves the new co-owners of a marina at Smuggler's Cove on the Navesink River. Their plan to sell the property goes awry when a dead body is found floating under their dock, transforming their new inheritance into a crime scene.

Madison swaps her city-girl wardrobe for cargo pants and flannel shirts, and she and Lincoln receive a crash course in small-town Jersey shore life, complete with quirky characters, pirate legends and a mysterious treasure map. They're discovering more about themselves and each other every day, but with a mystery to solve, and big decisions to make, these are lessons they'll need to learn fast ...

Clive Cussler The Iron Storm

An Isaac Bell Adventure #15
Jack Du Brul

Van Dorn agent Isaac Bell knows that when the President of the United States asks you to undertake a special mission, the only appropriate answer is, 'Right away, sir'.

As an official observer, Bell is supposed to avoid action, but that's like asking a fish to shun water. After battling in the trenches, he finds himself flying beside a group of Allied aviators, unwilling to let them fight alone, even when they are faced with capture. Bell and his compatriots are imprisoned in a medieval castle – one that's withstood countless assaults by conventional weapons in its history. Escape lies tantalisingly close ... but only with the help of the latest in battlefield technology.

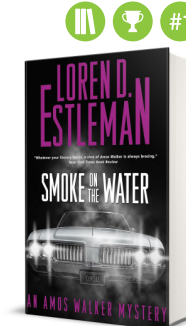

But freedom may be short-lived. Even in the middle of a World War, Bell finds there are forces worse than those arrayed against the Americans on the battlefield. Opponents who are so evil that they are willing to set aside whatever rules of war still exist to take the fight to where they think it belongs: the streets of the United States. And there's only one man who can stop them ... Isaac Bell.

The Nightingale

Kristin Hannah

France, 1939.

In the quiet village of Carriveau, Vianne Mauriac says goodbye to her husband, Antoine, as he heads for the Front. She doesn't believe that the Nazis will invade France ... but invade they do, in droves of marching soldiers, in caravans of trucks and tanks, in planes that fill the skies and drop bombs upon the innocent. When a German captain requisitions Vianne's home, she and her daughter must live with the enemy or lose everything. Without food or money or hope, as danger escalates all around them, she is forced to make one impossible choice after another to keep her family alive.

Vianne's sister, Isabelle, is a rebellious 18-year-old girl, searching for purpose with all the reckless passion of youth. While thousands of Parisians march into the unknown terrors of war, she meets Gaëtan, a partisan who believes the French can fight the Nazis from within France, and she falls in love as only the young can ... completely. But when he betrays her, Isabelle joins the Resistance and never looks back, risking her life time and again to save others.

Tom Clancy Terminal Velocity

A Jack Ryan Jr. Novel #14
M.P. Woodward

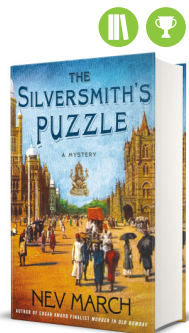

A string of savage murders in the United States seems unrelated until the FBI makes a shocking discovery. A decade ago, all of the murder victims were involved in a raid to eliminate the Umayyad Revolutionary Council, a vicious terror group that – were it not for John Clark and the Campus – would have perpetrated the most devastating attack against critical American infrastructure in history. Now it appears they're back, with a next-generation leader hell-bent on revenge.

Mary Pat Foley, Director of National Intelligence, greenlights an op for the Campus to cut the head off the snake. Clark taps ex-Delta commando Bartosz 'Midas' Jankowski to lead a kill team into the mountains to snuff out the charismatic terror leader. But when the hunters become the hunted, it's up to Jack Ryan Jr. to avert disaster amid a deadly power game.

On a rapid covert ingress from India, he'll traverse the Himalayan wilderness with a rifle on his back and a tough Mujahadin fighter by his side. Jack knows time is growing short – he must save his team and lead them to hit terminal velocity.

Revenge of Odessa
Odessa #2
Frederick Forsyth & Tony Kent

Summer, 2025. A US senator is burned to death in his Washington townhouse. Masked gunmen massacre supporters during a football match in Berlin. And an old man is murdered while he sleeps in the dementia ward of a German hospital. Three apparently unconnected events, three steps on the countdown to apocalypse.

When journalist and podcaster Georg Miller starts joining the dots between them, he finds himself the target of professional killers. His investigation soon reveals that his would-be assassins are from an organisation known as the Odessa, a menacing and powerful Nazi group intent on regaining power.

The Odessa has spread its poison from a covert compound in the Bavarian countryside all the way to the halls of the American Capitol. And now, as their campaign to destabilise the Western political system accelerates, Georg must stop the next attack, before it changes the course of history ...

Problematic Summer Romance

Ali Hazelwood

Maya Killgore is 23 and still in the process of figuring out her life.

Conor Harkness is 38, and Maya cannot stop thinking about him.

It's such a cliché, it almost makes her heart implode: older man and younger woman; successful biotech guy and struggling grad student; brother's best friend and the girl he never even knew existed. As Conor loves to remind her, the power dynamic is too imbalanced. Any relationship between them would be problematic in too many ways to count, and Maya should just get over him. After all, he has made it clear that he wants her gone from his life.

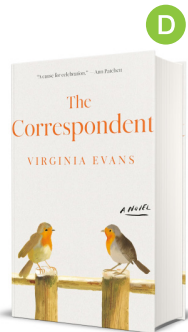

When Maya's brother decides to get married in Taormina, she and Conor end up stuck together in a romantic Sicilian villa for over a week. There, on the beautiful Ionian coast, between ancient ruins, delicious foods and natural caves, Maya realises that Conor might be hiding something from her. And as the destination wedding begins to erupt out of control, she decides that a summer fling might be just what she needs – even if it's a problematic one.

By Any Other Name

Jodi Picoult

Young playwright Melina Green has just written a new work inspired by the life of her Elizabethan ancestor Emilia Bassano. But seeing it performed is unlikely, in a theatre world where the playing field isn't level for women. As Melina wonders if she dares risk failure again, her best friend takes the decision out of her hands and submits the play to a festival under a male pseudonym.

In 1581, young Emilia Bassano is a ward of English aristocrats. Her lessons on languages, history and writing have endowed her with a sharp wit and a gift for storytelling, but like most women of her day, she is allowed no voice of her own. Forced to become a mistress to the Lord Chamberlain, who oversees all theatre productions in England, Emilia sees firsthand how the words of playwrights can move an audience. She begins to form a plan to secretly bring a play of her own to the stage – by paying an actor named William Shakespeare to front her work.

O'Meara's Gold Cody Cavanaugh #1 Jeffrey J. Mariotte

When Union private Cody Cavanaugh is captured and sent to the Confederate prison at Camp Tattnall, he's quickly befriended by Sean O'Meara, who has a secret – a stash of stolen Confederate gold stashed in a safe location. When he realises he won't survive Tattnall and its sadistic commander, 'Butcher' Crane, he tells Cody where it's hidden and elicits a promise to deliver it to his fiancée, Eleanor Perry.

At the war's end, Cody retrieves the gold, but Eleanor – now Eleanor Bishop – proves hard to find. Her trail leads him across the continent to Pedregosa, in the Arizona Territory. A dozen years have passed, and Cody simply wants to deliver the gold and get started on his own life. But Pedregosa is in the grip of a war between miner and rancher factions, and Cody winds up in the middle. Making enemies of both sides, only his hard-won skills and a few chosen allies can save his life. But that's only if he can survive the lethal manipulations of Ethan Holm, who's not the man he claims to be. And only Cody knows who he really is ...

One Sharp Stitch A Nimble Needle Mystery #1 Allie Pleiter

It's only temporary. That's what Shelby Phillips tells herself when she returns to excruciatingly harmless Gwen Lake after her graphic arts career – and the office romance blooming with it – get tossed like rejected design mockups. Her plan? Manage the family needlepoint shop during her parents' RV vacation. It's just a month. It's not as if they're retiring ... right?

When Shelby becomes responsible for hosting a trunk show with local vendors, she's determined to pull it off. Even if that means dealing with former classmate Kat Katsaros, a rising entrepreneur specialising in needlework scissors. Kat's angling to take over the Nimble Needle herself. The tension unspools when Shelby makes a terrible discovery – Kat's dead body.

Shelby can't believe the death was an accident. That's why she's set on exposing who committed the murder with Kat's own equipment. She finds help in a new friend, a potential crush and the surprising support of her sister and the Nimble Needle stitchers. Still, Shelby must move quickly to stop the crafty culprit before her maybe not-so-temporary new life in Gwen Lake comes apart at the seams ...

Reacher

The Stories behind the Stories
Lee Child

From urgently scribbling out his debut Killing Floor in pencil (the stub of which he still owns), to taking a step back with Blue Moon, and everything in between, here are 24 honest, witty and wise personal reflections on Lee Child's life and work, crafted across decades.

Enjoy Lee's moving accounts of: meeting a fan years after her mother brought her to a book signing; facing his first computer and the coming of the internet; writing about New York just before – and just after – 9/11; and seeing his novels adapted for the big screen. Each riveting piece deftly evokes where he was psychologically and physically when he wrote each novel.

These stories were originally designed for fans of Reacher who may be interested in a 'behind-the-scenes' – or, in Lee's words: 'why the books turned out the way they did'.

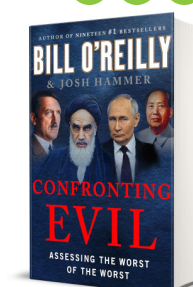

But this collection is also so much more. It is the story of a man who once put pencil to paper in an attempt to turn his luck around ... and who made every word count.

Fifteen-year-old Marisol is the daughter of a soucouyant. Every new moon, she sheds her skin like the many women before her, shifting into a fireball witch who must fly into the night and slowly sip from the lives of others to sustain her own. But Brooklyn is no place for fireball witches with all its bright lights, shut windows and bolt-locked doors. While Marisol hoped they would leave their old traditions behind when they emigrated from the islands, she knows this will never happen while she remains ensnared by the one person who keeps her chained to her magical past – her mother.

Seventeen-year-old Genevieve is the daughter of a college professor and a newly minted older half-sister of twins. Her worsening skin condition and the babies' constant wailing keep her up at night. She hopes to quench the hunger that gnaws at her, one that seems to reach for some memory of her estranged mother. When a new nanny arrives, a family secret connecting her to Marisol is revealed.

The Collector of Burned Books

Roseanna M. White

Paris, 1940. Ever since the Nazi Party began burning books, German writers exiled for their opinions or heritage have fled to Paris. There they opened a library meant to celebrate the freedom of ideas and gathered every book on the banned list ... even incognito versions of the forbidden books that were smuggled back into Germany.

For the last six years, Corinne Bastien has been making that library a second home. But when the German army takes possession of Paris, she loses access to the library and all the secrets she's hidden there.

Christian Bauer is a German professor, one who's done his best to protect his family as well as the books that were a threat to Nazi ideals. But when Goebbels sends him to Paris to handle the 'relocation' of France's libraries, he's forced into an army uniform and given a rank he doesn't want. In Paris, he tries to protect whoever and whatever he can from the madness of the Party and preserve the ideas that Germans will need again when that madness is over, and maybe find a lost piece of his heart.
