The Dying Light

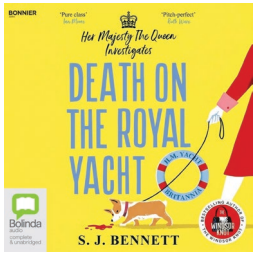

Two Rivers #4
Ann Cleeves

Detective Matthew Venn is called to investigate when the body of a young woman is found in the swimming pool of Tide House, a luxurious holiday home in North Devon. The girl's best friend has disappeared from the property which belongs to rising political star Paul Armstrong, leading to intense media scrutiny.

During a scorching heatwave, further tragedy strikes. Venn and his team question a community brimming with secrets. The dead girl and her friend had been seen at a local music festival, an event attended by many outsiders – some of whom seem to have close connections with the Armstrongs.

Caught between a powerful family's secrets and a powder keg of local tensions, Venn must navigate a treacherous path – knowing that the real answers lie not in what people say, but in the silence that they keep ...

The Isle of Good Karma

Alexander McCall Smith

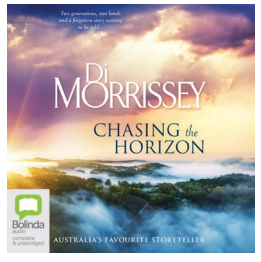

Single and approaching middle age, Maeve Macdonald starts feeling that if she doesn't do something drastic soon, life will have passed her by. And so, after 20 years of teaching, she gives up her career and leaves home in search of adventure.

Travelling through South Asia, she finds that everything in this new chapter of her life is going remarkably well. Karma, it appears, is on her side.

But after her arrival in Nepal, her good luck seems to have run out: an injury puts a pause on her plans, and an unexpected fall nearly ends her new-found friendship with a handsome American called Charles.

Will Maeve have to abandon her adventure and go back home alone? And will Charles be able to pluck up the courage to tell Maeve how he really feels before they go their separate ways?

You Be Mother

Meg Mason

The only thing Abi ever wanted was a proper family. So when she falls pregnant by an Australian exchange student in London, she cannot pack up her old life in Croydon fast enough, to start all over in Sydney and make her own family. It is not until she arrives, with three-week-old Jude in tow, that Abi realises Stu is not quite ready to be a father after all. And he is the only person she knows in this hot, dazzling, confusing city, where the job of making friends is turning out to be harder than she thought. That is, until she meets Phyllida, her wealthy, charming, imperious older neighbour, and they become almost like mother and daughter. If only Abi had not told Phil that teeny tiny small lie, the very first day they met ...

Land of Ghosts

Land of Ghosts #1
E.L. James

In a single, devastating moment, I lost everyone I loved.

Now I'm in London, living with my sort-of-uncle Dylan. And the only thing we have in common is loss. This new life isn't a life. It's unbearable.

Except – there's someone else here. A young man. He can't be real. Can he? He's funny, cool, infuriating ... and he understands me in a way no one else does. But only I can see him.

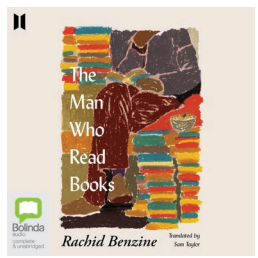

Before I know it, he's all I can think about. All I can dream about. Am I falling in love ... with a ghost?

Narrator to Come

E.L. James is the author of the Fifty Shades series; Fifty Shades of Grey stayed on the New York Times bestseller list for 133 consecutive weeks, and with its sequels, sold more than 160 million copies in over 50 languages

CHASING the HORIZON

AUSTRALIA'S FAVOURITE STORYTELLER

A Country PUB Christmas

A Gingerbread Christmas by Alissa Callen: Tory Halifax is on a mission to bring joy and gingerbread to Windamere. Christmas grinch Blake Randall is hibernating until his twin nieces gatecrash his farm. Can Tory help Blake create new holiday memories to ensure he'll never spend Christmas alone in the pub again?

A Jillaroo Until Christmas by Stella Quinn: Backpacker Micky Harding needs to get out of her comfort zone. For grazier Steve Bruce, a useless station hand is just one more problem. Add an abandoned goldrush pub and a fall-in-love situationship between two people who are adamant their stars do not align, and you've got a cracker of a country Christmas.

Love on the Menu by Pamela Cook: Chef Cassidy Butler is opening her dream restaurant. Nate Willis, the boy who broke her heart, runs the pub across the road. Cassidy's dream will implode if she doesn't ask her enemy for help – and acknowledge there's still a spark between them.

The Kiss Before Christmas by Penelope Janu: Lily Campbell runs her own fencing business, and doesn't need anyone's help. When a city lawyer retrieves her runaway wheel, she thanks him with a kiss. After all, she'll never see him again. But Xavier Lucas keeps turning up. It's a bad idea to date someone from such a different world, but after that kiss, what if Lily wants more?

Four new stories that sparkle with joy from beloved Australian authors

Alissa Callen • Stella Quinn

Pamela Cook • Penelope Janu

'Well written ... Pamela Cook proves to be a skilled writer, deftly capturing natural dialogue and behaviour.'

The European Mind

Colonialism, Capitalism, Christianity & How to Recover
Bruce Pascoe

The European Mind is a global examination of Western power informed by a First Nations perspective, delving into Christianity, capitalism, colonialism, and the ongoing impact of colonial history. It contends that European imperialism was not only driven by economic and exploratory factors but motivated by a self-perpetuating belief based on moral superiority, racial hierarchy, spiritual entitlement and an insatiable greed paraded as economics.

Bruce Pascoe traces how these ideas were used to change the lives of countless peoples, countries and continents through violence, dispossession and environmental exploitation. Framed by a First Nations philosophy, The European Mind picks apart beliefs and truths that sit at the heart of our society. Pascoe proposes meaningful change by shifting cultural and moral thought, rebalancing relationships, demolishing the myth of superiority and by the rethinking of capitalism as the only system.

A Suitable Man

The Eccentric Empire of Fletcher Jones
Jock Serong

Many Australians know of Fletcher Jones – the stores, the clothing, the daggy dad slacks – but few know the extraordinary man behind it all.

The stammering, motherless son of an impoverished Bendigo blacksmith, David Fletcher Jones left school at 13 and ended WWI buried alive by a shell explosion in France. He then worked as a travelling salesman before opening a tailor's shop. Later, he bought five acres for his factory. Fletcher Jones and Staff, his manufacturing and retail empire, was founded on profit-sharing and staff ownership.

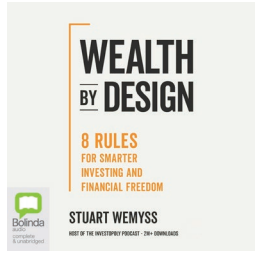

His life is a fascinating reflection of Australia's 20th-century progress across social policy, immigration, manufacturing, the city and country divide, the rise and fall of wool. But most important, perhaps, is the fundamental human decency and determination of this visionary autodidact to run an enterprise for profit while seeking to do good.

Jock Serong is the author of Quota, winner of the 2015 Ned Kelly Award for Best First Fiction and On the Java Ridge, which won the Colin Roderick Award

8 RULES FOR SMARTER INVESTING AND FINANCIAL FREEDOM

STUART WEMYSS

HOST OF THE INVESTOPOLY PODCAST - 2M+ DOWNLOADS

MANY PEOPLE EARN WELL FOR DECADES AND STILL DO NOT BUILD MUCH WEALTH. NOT BECAUSE THEY LACK INTELLIGENCE, BUT BECAUSE SURPLUS CASH FLOW LEAKS AWAY, INVESTING BECOMES SPORADIC, AND EMOTION TAKES OVER WHEN MARKETS MOVE.

WEALTH BY DESIGN GIVES YOU A REPEATABLE, EVIDENCE-BASED SYSTEM FOR BUILDING LONG-TERM WEALTH – A 'WEALTH OPERATING SYSTEM' – GROUNDED IN HOW COMPOUNDING WORKS IN PRACTICE, AND HOW REAL PEOPLE BEHAVE UNDER FEAR, GREED AND UNCERTAINTY. DON'T LEAVE YOUR FINANCIAL FUTURE TO CHANCE; FOLLOW THE EIGHT RULES IN THIS INFORMATIVE AND PRACTICAL AUDIOBOOK AND DESIGN THE FUTURE LIFESTYLE THAT YOU DESIRE:

1. THINK IN DECADES, NOT DAYS
2. KNOW HOW MUCH INCOME YOU NEED AND BY WHEN
3. BUILD A SAVINGS ENGINE THAT RUNS ON AUTOPILOT
4. FOCUS ON GROWTH, THEN INTRODUCE MORE LIQUIDITY AND REDUCE GEARING
5. ADOPT A VALUE-AWARE ASSET ALLOCATION
6. INVEST IN SHARES IN AN EVIDENCE-BASED WAY
7. ONLY OWN PROPERTY WITH ENDURING, SCARCE, AND GROWING DEMAND
8. REMOVE AS MUCH RISK AS POSSIBLE.

Peace Comes to Honeyfield

Honeyfield #3
Anna Jacobs

Armistice Day, London, 1918. Fiercely independent Georgie is tired of being told what's best for her by men. When she defies her father's wishes by going out into the peace festivities, she tries to help a woman being attacked and encounters Patrick, a gallant wounded ex-soldier looking for a new calling now that the fighting is done.

But the war isn't over for everybody. Enemy forces have infiltrated the bureau and sent her father into hiding. And they are coming for her too. Georgie knows there's only one place where she'll be safe: Honeyfield. But there are traitors in the bureau and she doesn't know who she can trust.

With Patrick in charge of her security detail, can she get to Honeyfield before her father's enemies find her? And will she be reunited with her father, the only family she has left?

Ann Bennett

North Carolina, 2015. Nicole has always idolised her successful father, Ed. But on his deathbed he reveals a devastating secret. While serving in the Vietnam War, he fathered a child that he never acknowledged.

Huế, South Vietnam, 1968. Under bombardment during the Tet offensive, 17-year-old Mai finds a wounded American hiding in her family's chicken shed. Mai faces an agonising choice. Will she report the soldier to the Viet Cong, who have a stranglehold on the village, or will she risk her life and that of her family to help him?

In 2015, Nicole travels to Vietnam on a quest to uncover her father's long-buried truths. Helped by Greig, an ageing Vietnam vet, and his journalist son, Long, she delves into the shocking world her father wanted to forget, plumbing depths of resilience and courage she never knew she possessed.

We'll Meet Again

Stockings, lisle ... shoes, black clumpy ... the list went on and on. And to think that she'd chosen the WAAF because the blue uniform looked so smart!

When war broke out, 17-year-old Christie could have stayed down on the family farm in Norfolk, where she was wanted and needed. So why had she joined up? Come to that, why had Meg from Cheshire, and Sue, very much the big city girl from Liverpool, and Shanna, the life-toughened product of a broken home in Glasgow? Mixed reasons. Very mixed backgrounds. But no time to think now. Not with the sergeant shouting and the station air-raid siren beginning to wail ...

The Good Terrorist

Doris Lessing

In a London squat a band of bourgeois revolutionaries are united by a loathing of the waste and cruelty they see around them. These maladjusted malcontents try desperately to become involved in terrorist activities far beyond their level of competence. Only Alice seems capable of organising anything. Motherly, practical and determined, she is also easily exploited by the group and ideal fodder for a more dangerous and potent cause. Eventually their naïve radical fantasies turn into a chaos of real destruction, but the aftermath is not as exciting as they had hoped. Nonetheless, while they may not have changed the world, their lives will never be the same again ...

Ghost. Lu. Patina. Sunny. Four kids from wildly different backgrounds with personalities that are explosive when they clash. But they are also four kids chosen for an elite middle school track team – a team that could qualify them for the Junior Olympics if they can get their acts together. They all have a lot to lose, but they also have a lot to prove, not only to each other, but to themselves.

Running. That's all Ghost (real name Castle Cranshaw) has ever known. But Ghost has been running for the wrong reasons – it all started with running away from his father, who chased him and his mother with a loaded gun. Since then, Ghost has been the one causing problems until he meets Coach, an ex-Olympic Medallist who sees something in Ghost: crazy natural talent. If Ghost can stay on track, he could be the best sprinter in the city. Can Ghost harness his raw talent for speed, or will his past finally catch up to him?

'Ghost's voice and character spring off the page in this stunning novel about facing your fears and finding your feet. His character is so authentic.'

— BookTrust

'This is the book you hand to the kids who want something real and good and honest. There are a lot of Ghosts out there in the world. Hopefully some of them will discover themselves here.'
