The definitive account of Erin Patterson and the 2025

On 29 July 2023 in Leongatha, a small town in rural Victoria, family and friends of local woman Erin Patterson sit down for Saturday lunch. On the menu: Beef Wellington. The next day, four of the guests are hospitalised. Doctors suspect death-cap-mushroom poisoning. Within a week, three of them will be dead.

On 2 November that same year, Erin Patterson is arrested and charged with three counts of murder and five of attempted murder. She is held in custody at a women's prison until her trial begins in April 2025, and the case captures media attention around the world.

Did Erin Patterson deliberately poison her estranged husband's parents, aunt and uncle? Not guilty, Erin Patterson declared to the court.
