The Great Hippopotamus Hotel

No. 1 Ladies' Detective Agency #25
Alexander McCall Smith

Mma Ramotswe has a deft hand in delicate cases, and never allows an act of injustice to pass unanswered. So, when it comes to her attention that a matter involving dubious motives has arisen, and that it will require the utmost discretion to resolve, she has no choice but to lend her skills in the arts of detection and reconciliation. She is, after all, head of Botswana's premier detective agency, but that doesn't mean she can't use the help of Mma Makutsi and Mma Potokwane. Meanwhile, Mr J.L.B. Matekoni has found himself in complicated circumstances of his own, requiring not a little of Mma Ramotswe's time and expertise.

In the end, as each of these predicaments comes untangled, Mma Ramotswe draws on her goodwill and generosity to bring important truths to light – of friendship, honesty and love.

Jock Serong

From multi-award-winning author Jock Serong comes Cherrywood, an imaginative, darkly playful and deeply meaningful delight, a story about legacy, community, wonder, love and reinvention.

Read by Elisa Armstrong & Phillip McInnes

Contemporary Fiction

A surrealist painting of a woman in a pond. The woman is depicted from the waist up, with her arms raised, floating in a body of water. The water is a deep, vibrant blue, and the surrounding foliage is lush and green. A large, stylized face is superimposed on the water, mirroring the woman's features. The overall composition is symmetrical, with the woman's figure and the face acting as central focal points. The painting has a textured, almost abstract quality, with visible brushstrokes and a rich color palette.

Things No One Taught Us about Love

How to Build Healthy Relationships with Yourself and Others

Vex King

Many of us expect romantic love to solve our problems and validate our worth. This burden strains modern relationships. Partners become frustrated when unable to meet each other's idealised and impossible demands. Broken dreams of a life-long romance can leave people feeling incomplete and hopping from one partner to another.

It's no wonder we struggle, given that society fails to teach us about the true nature of love. We've been misled into thinking love is external – somewhere out there – rather than a force within us.

Vex King dismantles the myths and misconceptions surrounding love and relationships. Packed with personal stories, expert advice and inspirational messages, Things No One Taught Us about Love will help you understand how you love, create healthy habits, set boundaries that work for you and heal unprocessed emotion and trauma.

BEYOND BOOZE

How to create a life you love, alcohol-free

'This powerful, practical, inspiring and transformative book offers a clear roadmap to not only a life without booze, but a life that is truly fulfilling and joyful.'

Dr Helena Popovic MBBS

The goal isn't to be sober.
The goal is to love yourself so much you don't need to drink.

For decades we have been sold the idea that alcohol is our 'reward' at the end of a busy day. We use it to celebrate and commiserate, for self-care and socialising, and to relieve the stress of the daily grind. But alcohol affects our physical and mental wellbeing in ways we don't even realise.

Creating a life without alcohol can feel scary. In a culture so captivated with booze, can we really remove it altogether and still be happy? The answer is absolutely YES, and this audiobook shows you how.

More Days at the Morisaki Bookshop

Morisaki Bookshop #2
Satoshi Yagisawa

The Morisaki bookshop is so packed with books that barely five people can fit inside. Books crowd the shelves and invade every corner of the floor; when a customer arrives, the owner, Satoru, immediately pops out from behind the counter. Recently, his wife Momoko has joined him, and often, in her free time after work, their niece Takako also helps out.

For the first time, the girl does not feel lonely; she has new friends and new rituals to keep her company. Because, as she has discovered, a bookstore is populated not only by the characters contained in the books, but also by those who frequent it. And those stories create bonds.

Takako gives her aunt and uncle a trip, promising to look after the shop while they are away. Everything seems to be going swimmingly, but then why is Satoru behaving so strangely? How many other stories, emotions and treasures does the Morisaki bookshop hold?

Every Living Thing

The Classic Memoirs of a Yorkshire Country Vet
All Creatures Great and Small #8

James Herriot

During his decades spent as a country vet in Yorkshire, James Herriot has seen huge advances in medical science, technological leaps and a world irrevocably changed by war. Yet some things have always stayed the same – gruff farmers, hypochondriac pet owners and animals that never do quite what you expect them to. From a green young man in his first job in the 1930s, to an experienced veterinary surgeon, married with two children, James has spent his entire career among the people and animals of Darrowby. And there's nowhere else he'd rather be.

Since they were first published, James Herriot's memoirs have sold millions of copies and entranced generations of animal lovers. Charming, funny and touching, Every Living Thing is a heart warming story of determination, love and companionship from one of Britain's best-loved authors.
